Crash victim was pinned in vehicle

Following car gets license number

Minor LeCraix, of Lindsay, called a "potential murderer" by Magistrate C.W. Guest will serve the next ten days in jail and pay a fine of $300 for failing to stop after an accident. He was arrested March 20th following a two-car accident on Highway 35 just south of Camerton, after he had struck a car being driven by Lorne Shier of C.R.I. Camerton. Magistrate C.W. Guest highly recommended witness Terry Radey, owner of the Canadian Tire Store in Fenelon Falls, for his alertness in getting the licence number of the accused which later led to his arrest. Radey said that he had been coming into Lindsay with his wife on the night in question when he noticed a car ahead "weaving from side to side to side, 50% of the time on the left side of the road". He said three cars were approaching, the first got past the accused, the second had to swerve to avoid hitting him, but the third one was hit. "The car did not stop so he followed it in to Lindsay as his wife took the licence number. The police later traced it to LeCraix, who said he had returned earlier from Fenelon Falls. Lorne Shier testified that he had been driving north when a car came over to his side (he was partly on the shoulder) and struck him, damaging the door, pinning him in the car. One of his passengers later called the police. He was unable to see who was driving or the type of car, he said. LeCraix's car was found parked on William St. and a piece of chrome found on the scene matched that on the car O.P.F. Const. U.G. Saunders testified. He also told the court he had given the accused a sobriety test which, in his opinion, was "poorly performed". One of the most callous cases I have heard for some time," remarked the magistrate.

"You left your victim pinned in his car, unable to get out, help and, in my opinion, you are a potential murderer". A further charge of drunk driving was dismissed.

Weather outlook Lake Ontario, Huron and Erie, Sunday: Sunny, light breeze, with a few clouds Thursday. Slowly rising temperatures. Winds light to moderate. Thursday and Hamilton 22 Toronto, 20, Peterborough 18, Killeen and Algonics 12.

Glassed Ham Loaf

Bake at 400 deg. for 40 minutes

Makes 8 servings

6 cups ground cooked ham
2 1/2 cups 2 medium-sized carrots, grated (1 cup); 1 cup soft bread crumbs (2 slices); 1 cup milk; 1 egg, slightly beaten; 2 tablespoons chopped parsley; 1 medium-size onion, chopped (1/2 cup); 1 tablespoon butter or margarine; 2 teaspoons prepared mustard; 1 teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon pepper; whole cloves; 3 tablespoons brown concentrated orange juice (from a 6-ounce can); 3 tablespoons honey; Pineapple Relish Rings (recipe follows).

1. Combine ham, carrots, bread crumbs, potato, eggs and parsley in a large bowl; toss lightly to mix.
2. Saute onion in butter or margarine just until soft in a small frying pan; stir in mustard, salt and pepper. Add to ham mixture; mix lightly.

3. Pack into a 6-cup mold or loaf pan, 9x5x3, rinsed with cold water; turn into a greased shallow baking pan; stud top with whole cloves.

4. Bake in hot oven (400 deg.) 20 minutes; brush with remaining orange-bone mixture. Bake 20 minutes longer, or until nicely glazed.
5. Lift onto a heated serving platter; garnish with pineapple relish rings.

Note — While hot, this loaf is soft and may crumble some when sliced.

Pineapple Relish Rings

Makes 8 servings

1. About 1 pound sliced pineapple; 1/4 cup cider vinegar; 1 teaspoon mixed pickling spices; 2 tablespoons chopped parsley.

1. Drain syrup from pineapple into a small saucepan; stir in vinegar and spices. Place pineapple in a small bowl.

2. Heat syrup to boiling, then simmer 5 minutes. Strain over pineapple; chill.

3. Cut pineapple into slices; roll edges in chopped parsley; arrange around ham loaf on platter. Or to make fancy design, cut through each pineapple ring, then twist each into a loop.

When does one bring a hostess gift? These are not easy questions. They may even cause embarrassment. Both to the hostess and to guests who have not brought one. The best way to express your appreciation for another's hospitality is to return it as nearly in kind as possible. For example, the person who invites you to dinner should be entertained at a meal, not at morning coffee or afternoon tea.

How is an invitation declined? Always seem gracious when others decline your invitation and say you are sorry. Convey the impression that you understand their excuse. When you "previous decline an invitation," this is still and too formal for everyday occasions. Instead say: "I am so sorry — we are going away that week end." Or: "We have theatre tickets." If you know the other person well, it is warm to ask: "Please give us a rain check." When you must decline, always add: "Thank you for thinking of us."

BEAUTY TIP

When plucking your eyebrow — brush hairs the wrong way so they can stand up and can be seen clearly.

FULL STOMACHS

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev, in a thinly concealed counter-attack against the Chinese Communists, today publicly declared that world revolution cannot succeed without full stomachs. Gesturing dramatically for emphasis, the Kremlin leader told a meeting of enthusiastic workers in Budapest: "There are Communists and who claim they are working for a better world. But they still don't think it's important to raise the standard of living. They only call for revolution, revolution," Khrushchev shouted.

EOKA DAY

United Nations troops braced for possible violence today as pro-Greek Nationalists began celebrating Eoka day in honor of the Greek Cypriot guerrilla organization that helped Cyprus win independence from Britain in 1960. President Archbishop Makarios is offering a special service this morning honoring the dead shortly before a massive parade that was expected to feature Greek Cypriot armored units. Greek veterans and units of the newly formed "national guard" were to make up the bulk of the parade.

BACK TO SEA

The aircraft carrier Bonaventure, with troops and heavy equipment for Canada's United Nations peace-keeping force on Cyprus delivered, headed back to sea from Cyprus today. The 20-thousand-ton carrier, which made an emergency trip from Halifax to Cyprus under the United Nations flag, will visit Malta, Gibraltar and Norfolk, Virginia, before returning to Halifax May 10.

EMERGENCY LANDING

EARTHQUAKE

A slight earthquake rocked Central New Hampshire this morning. The tremor shook houses and caused sleeping occupants. However, no injuries were reported. It was the third earthquake to hit the New England area in five months.

Conflict of evidence charge is dismissed

A direct conflict of evidence by two Lindsay drivers and their witnesses, was sufficient to call for a dismissal of a charge of improper passing against Ben Vandenberg, Makgistra C. W. Guest said in Lindsay police court this week.

Vandenberg had been charged following an accident near the Bonitour Restaurant March 12.

The other driver, Joseph Cook, said he had been proceeding along highway 35 on the day of the incident, and had slowed down, signalled to enter a service station on his side of the road, when he heard a crash, and his car was swung around by the impact.

Vandenberg, corroborated by his 2 passengers) testified that he had seen a car ahead, slow down, apply brakes, put on the left signal, and pull over "strutting the white line" as if in preparation for a left turn.

"As I approached to pass him on the right side," said the accused, "the Cook suddenly swung to the right into a service station lot, and that was when I hit him."

It was noted that Cook was not carrying insurance at the time.

Cook, returned to the witness box by the Crown Attorney, insisted that he had signalled to enter the service station on his side when he was struck.

"You did not at any time signal left, and straddle the centre line?" pursued the Crown.

"No sir."

"I find a direct conflict of evidence here," remarked the magistrate, "and will dismiss the charge, but must say that anyone permitting a car on the road without insurance, should be investigated."

Misses Cathy, Susan and Debbie Coleman, Greenbank, were hostesses at their home for their grandmother, Mrs. George Wicketto's 91st birthday on Sunday March 8th. Mr. and Mrs. Ross Coleman, being on holiday in Florida, the girls took over. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent with piano music, pictures and the usual chat. Lunch with birthday cake was served later in the afternoon. Those attending to assist the girls with their birthday wishes were Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Hill, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wicketto, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Wicketto, Miss Barbara Brennan, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hill and family, Mrs. Gertrude Wicketto, Mrs. J. Chester, Mrs. A. Denny, Mrs. S. Hern, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Cookman. On Monday afternoon, Mrs. Wicketto's actual birthday, Mr. and Mrs. Reg. Cookman entertained a few of the neighbours and friends. Those who called were Mr. and Mrs. William thinking he had been outstayed. Had he continued, in how many hours would he have overtaken him?

Several from here were among the bus load of vegetable growers who took the trip to Toronto Friday.

Pearl R. Grills

Pearl Rubens Grills, of 11 Fairview, Lindsay, passed away in Lindsay on March 15, 1964 following a lengthy illness. The deceased was born in Youngs Point, Ontario, and was the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. C. Courtenay. She had resided in Lindsay, since infancy. Educated in Lindsay, she was a member of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Lindsay, and was a Past Noble Grand of Rebekah Lodge, a member of the Coronation Chapter of the Eastern Star.

She is survived by one son Clayton A. of Lindsay, one daughter Marguerite (Mrs. H. Goford) of Toronto and one sister Mrs. H. J. Bush, of Toronto.

The funeral was held on March 18th at 2 p.m. from the Mackay Funeral Home, Lindsay, and interment was in Riverside Cemetery. Rev. D. R. Landon, of St. Paul's Anglican Church, Lindsay, conducted the service.

The pallbearers were W. J. Bush, Dr. J. Bush, R. E. Dickerson and Douglas Cladd, all nephews of the deceased and Neil and Clifford Golden.

Catch the Horse Thief

A MAN who stole a horse rode away on his back at the rate of 35 miles per hour. After he had gone 10 miles, the owner started in pursuit at the rate of 35 miles per hour. For forty miles he followed the thief and then turned around, thinking he had been outstayed. Had he continued, in how many hours would he have overtaken him?

ANSWER: In one hour. The thief rode away at 35 miles per hour and the owner followed at 35 miles per hour. The thief was 10 miles ahead when the owner started. The owner caught up in 10/25 = 2/5 of an hour, or 24 minutes.

EGGING YOU OUT

TO BE the pigskin Betteg above brings to mind a classic comedy exchange between two old-time comedians: "Bake home, you chicken that is an egg every single day," says one. "What's wrong with that?" asks the other. "Well, you can't do it," says the first. "The egg in the picture. But the other didn't say the egg in the picture. To reveal the identity simply draw a line from the dot to the dot to the dot, you, and you have located all of the numbered dots."

Handel's Messiah presented by Danforth Citadel Singers

Fenelon Falls and the Citadel Singers. No Shirley De'ath A.T.C.M. was the pianist. During the International union piano and organ numbers were enjoyed. Major Stanley Madison of the Danforth Corps pronounced the rendition at the close of a truly wonderful performance, after which Captain Townsend expressed the appreciation of the local corps to the minister and Board of the United Church for making their facilities available for the presentation of the Messiah.

The Messiah was first performed in Dublin on April 13th, 1742. It is described by Sir Ernest MacMillan as perhaps the greatest piece of choral virtuosity in music and the final "Amen" with the continually-mounding affirmation of faith pictures the fulfillment of the Kingdom of God on earth.

Introducing the group of 45 Rev. M. C. Fisher said that they had toured many parts of the United States and Canada and in 1959 had visited Great Britain. All members of the choir are volunteers, and the director and leader, Mr. Eric Sharp has been with the songsters for twenty-five years. As a prelude to the magnificent performance, the guest organ Mr. Fenwick Watkins A.T.C.M. gave an organ recital followed with prayer by the Rev. M. C. Fisher.

Soloists were Jean Sharp Soprano; Carolyn Simmons Contralto; Howard Saunders Tenor; Harry Ulla, Baritone and David Simmons, Trumpet.

During the First World War, Mr. Mathewson served overseas with the 48th Highlanders. At the age of four years Mr. Mathewson moved with his parents from Little Current to Markdale where he attended public school. He left Markdale at the age of 21 and following his return from overseas in 1921, took up residence in Toronto, where he lived until 1929. He served as a motorist on the Toronto Street Railway at the Eglinton Division from 1929 until his retirement in 1959, when Mr. and Mathewson moved to Van deleur. He was an adherent of Van deleur United Church and when his health permitted took an active part in activities of the church.

To mourn his loss are his wife; one son, Frederick Roy of Weston; one daughter, Rose Marie (Mrs. Milton Brown) of Toronto; one sister, Mrs. Laura Menzies of Fenelon Falls and four brothers, Lyall of Richmond Hill, Harry of Toronto, George of Hamilton and Russell of New York; also one grandchild. He was predeceased by one brother, Wallace who was killed overseas during the First World War and by two sisters, Ethel and Mabel.

The funeral service, which was largely attended, was held in the Jarrett Funeral Chapel, St. Clair Avenue, W., in Toronto, conducted by Canon J. D. Palmer, Rector of St. Philip's Anglican Church, Weston.

Interment was in Riverside Cemetery Weston with Mourners: Richard Huff, Joseph Huff, Kenneth Richells, Roy Richells and William Menzies acting as pallbearers.

A profusion of beautiful floral tributes bore silent testimony of love and esteem. Relatives and friends from Fenelon Falls, Trenton, Dundas, Hamilton, Hurville, Grimsby, Richmond Hill, Markdale, Chatsworth and Clarkson attended the funeral service.

From the ashes of the old...

The new building to replace the Royal Canadian Legion razed by fire last year, is nearing completion at Haliburton and the official opening is expected to take place during April. The beautifully designed and appointed building cost about $100,000 and was designed by J. William Ridpath, Architects in Lindsay.

MAGISTRATE SAYS DRINK MADE YOUTH "SNEAK THIEF"

A 21-year-old Oshawa youth, Carl Thompson, was fined $200 and costs in a Lindsay court this week on a charge of theft. Magistrate C. W. Guest told Thompson, who had a record, that liquor had apparently made him a "sneak thief".

Pete Bakorgeorge, proprietor of the Embassy Dance hall told the court that Thompson had approached him one evening at the hall saying he had to make a phone call. While he was phoning, said the witness, he heard something that sounded like the tail opening, and later on asking the accused to "empty his pockets" found $87, which Thompson said he had "taken just for a joke".

"The accused had been drinking but he was not drunk," noted Mr. Bakorgeorge. The defence counsel said that drink had become a problem to his client, and that his client had no need for the money, as he was employed and had a sum of money on him at the time of the incident. "It would seem that liquor has made you a sneak thief", commented the magistrate. Crown Attorney L. Jordan told the court that Thompson had a past record of theft, with bail damage and liquor charges.

Don't think you're being April fooled
Yelverton (PNS) — On April 1 when you flip over your United Church calendar leaf, don't think you are being April fooled when you see the "native" children. The "tribe" come from Yelverton and the photograph was taken a few years back at a summer vacation school held in the church hall at its former site.

The Red Cross is over a hundred years old. It was founded in 1963.

Fenelon woman honored on her 89th birthday

Fenelon Falls (PNS) — Miss S. Haskell, known to her host of friends in Fenelon Falls as 'Aunt Frons' observed her 89th birthday on March 25th at her home on Louis St. During the afternoon a number of friends called to offer congratulations and best wishes. They were welcomed at the door by Mrs. Gordon Smith of Georgetown, and refreshments were served by her neices, Misses Ina and Margery Demill.

Miss Haskell has been a life long member of St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church, and still attends regularly. For 40 years she taught the Junior Department in the Sunday School. This faithful service was recognized some time ago by the congregation, and the Sunday School also remembered her on her birthday.

What is a Volkswagen, really?

A Volkswagen is a car.
A different kind of car.
It has its engine in the rear instead of the front.
We do it that way to put extra weight over the drive wheels and to prove the location. That's why a Volkswagen bugs going on sand, dirt, snow and ice.
And the engine is cooled with air instead of water. So there's no radiator to boil over in summer or freeze in winter. Or anti-freeze to buy. Or water pumps to fix. Or hose to replace.

A new kind of VW. Even though it has all the features just mentioned.
It has a great new engine that will take you from a standing start to 50 miles per hour in twelve seconds. It's like driving a sports car. Or an expensive touring car.

There's no secret to the outstanding road holding made possible by the independent torsion-bar suspension. And an anti-freeze bar. And an engine that is mounted low. A Volkswagen is one more thing. Economical.
And that's not a phrase with us. We're ready to prove it. Anytime.

THE GOLF WEEK OFF THE HEAVILY DAMAGED

Noticed along the way

Anyone living in these parts who would like to let their way to Europe and have a $1,000 in their pocket to spend when they get there will probably find the newest Lindsay Rotary Club's fund-raising idea of special interest.

A letter to be mailed out before the new postal rates come into effect on April 1st tells all about the club's plan to offer a jet ticket for two persons—PLUS one thousand dollars' expense money, to make this the vacation of a lifetime.

According to the circular letter, all one has to do to stand a chance of winning this exciting holiday, is to fill in two tickets which are enclosed with the letter and return them to Russ Olmgen, chairman, Lindsay Rotary Club Lucky Travel Contest Committee. All tickets returned, the letter goes on to say, will be pooled together and on Monday, June 1st, 1964, the Mayor of Lindsay will draw the lucky winner. If you return your tickets within three days you are entitled to an extra chance in the draw by filling out and returning the bonus ticket.

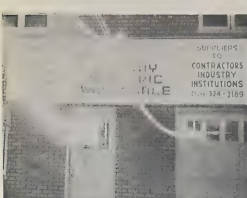

The club explains the reason for offering this opportunity in these words: "We live in a wonderful country in which people are glad to lend a helping hand. The Rotary Club does many things to serve the community. We have built, supervised and maintain a community swimming pool, support minor hockey, assist crippled children and provide many other voluntary services. We are presently supporting the renovating and refurbishing of a theatre which will provide an opportunity for the extension of the dramatic arts by providing good entertainment. These projects need your support. If we receive a donation of one dollar per ticket, our financial obligations for the swimming pool, sports programs and theatre renovation will be met. Whether or not you send any money, you are eligible for participation in the big vacation to Europe and the one thousand dollars in cash." (All cash may be taken instead of the jet trip, the letter points out).

Incidentally, as the circular letter also notes, "all work done on this project by Rotarians is donated free as a service to the community."

So there you have it gentle readers... a chance to win a free jet flight to Europe plus a $1,000 in cash to make the outing really enjoyable... imagine all the souvenirs you could bring home!... M.-M.-M.-M!

As a matter of interest, the big free coffee contest which closed a week ago Saturday midnight saw only two of the thousands who entered it emerge winners. Those entitled to free coffee for a week at Lynn's Restaurant, William St. N., Lindsay, are Al Montgomery, 101 Short Ave., and E. V. Warfield, 41 Cambridge St. S. Lindsay. (Berry Graham Miller, it was a good try.) The phony Beastie is A.R. (Bert) Bennett, alias Honey-Buck Soltisford, alias Amos Mosemilk... etc. He is currently en route home from Sarasota, Florida and scheduled to fold his wings and land in Lindsay on or about April 1st. Happy coffee drinking, you two lucky winners! Don't have promised to pick up the tab before he beats off again.

Bunch of livewires

Just looking at this picture as it was caused by an innocent bore, one would get the impression that the Lindsay Electric Wholesale on Peel St. had a bunch of live wires connected with it. The picture is, of course, a fluke, it is live wires."

Downeyville's Irish Concert riot of mirth and music

The annual Irish concert, sponsored by the Catholic Women's League of Downeyville, entertained in the parish hall with Paul McGuire as M.C. Presented in three parts, the first part of the program featured school children of the parish and was made up of songs, dances and musical numbers. Outstanding was "Just Listen", presented by six-year-old Lyle Leprehan. James Buzgan, accompanied by his uncle, accordionist Frank Richards.

The young people from the high school presented the second portion of the program, which featured variety numbers and choruses. A duet by James and Robert Pitch was followed by an amusing act entitled, "Something new" with Frank Richards and Noel Lucas in comic costumes as man and wife. This brought the house down.

Soloists for the evening were Benny Mahony, Mary Harrington, Gene O'Leary, Thomas Carroll and Leo Herlihy. Their Irish songs were well received and each individual gave an excellent performance.

The third part of the program consisted of a three act comedy, "Henry's Mail Order Mike". In the cast were Paul Martha, Alvin Purdie, Tim Dorgan Jr., Mrs. Paul Morrissey, Mrs. Vera Morrissey and Paul Morrissey.

The pianists were Mrs. Walter Herlihy and Leo Herlihy, and Thomas Parquharson of Whitty, won a radio, Miss Eleanor Harrington sold the winning ticket.

At the conclusion, the Country Gentlemen orchestra played for the dance which followed.

Curve Lake contribution

A pair of modern-day chiefs of the Ontario Government, Economics and Development Minister Stanley J. Randall (left) and Travel and Publicity Minister James Auld, examine the type of headdress worn by tribal chiefs of another area. The headdress is one of 1,000 souvenir and gift products which are worn on display in Toronto at the Ontario Souvenir Industry Exhibition. Mrs. Flora Taborsonding Parry Island Reserve is explaining that eagle feathers used to be traditional for chiefs' headdresses—but eagles are hard to come by these days and turkey feathers make a colorful substitute. This headdress was hand-made at the Curve Lake Reserve near Peterboro.

Official of Hay and Company of Woodstock, Ontario today announced a change in the firm's name including the Haliburton branch.

A company spokesman said the change in name is part of the corporate reorganization of three subsidiaries of the United States Plywood Corporation of New York. Austin Zapp, vice president and General Manager of the Woodstock firm, said the amalgamation will bring into effect three distinct companies under the U.S. firm. The other two will be Western Plywood Company and Woodstock West, both of Vancouver. Peace Stamp

A new stamp focusing attention on Canada's desire for further world peace will go on sale April 8th. Postmaster-General John B. Nicolson said the issue would be the first of several multi-coloured stamps the Canadian post office will issue this year. The stamp will show a globe in white and blue around which appears a gold banner bearing the words "Peace in Terror" is a darker gold.

Coloured slides in the categories of "People" and "Human Emotions" were shown by members of the Lindsay Camera Club in the L.C.V.I. Library. After the judging and commentary the three top scorers for the evening were Dr. Will Ferguson, of Sarnia, Charles Arndt, of Sarnia, and Charles Arndt, of Sarnia. Next month's competition covers the subjects "Reflections, Shadows, Sunsets, Clouds and Rain". Mr. J. W. Gravestock demonstrated the technique of making duplicates of favourite slides, and showed the various effects created by the use of different lenses.

A set of slides were shown entitled "The Best of Anochrome". These were the prize winning slides in the Anochrome of the Year Contest, and were a good set of slides covering several categories.

The Camera Club meets the second Wednesday of each month in the L.C.V.I. Library, and everyone interested in photography is welcome.

Saturday wreckers hey-day

Two Lindsay area residents were treated at the Ross Memorial Hospital over the weekend following car accidents in town.

John Roach, 41, of RR2 Lindsay, was a passenger in a car driven by Leslie Jones of Bowmanville that collided with another vehicle driven by Don Corley of Lindsay.

Police say that the accident happened Saturday about 6 p.m. when Jones attempted to pass Corley on Angeline St., near the county home. Both took to the opposite ditch, with the Jones vehicle landing on its top after hitting a hydro pole.

Investigating Cpl. R. Bailey estimated total damage about $1,200.

Roach received lacerations to his head. The other injured person was 19-year-old Bruce Costain of St. Patrick St., Lindsay, who sustained only eye lacerations when his car went out of control early Sunday morning on Kent St. near the Central Senior Public School, hitting a hydro pole.

Damage was estimated at about $400 (a write-off) by the investigating officers, Cpl. J. Henley and Const. R. Fountain.

Costain was treated as an outpatient at the hospital and released.

Burns Auto Body of Lindsay, handled the Costain vehicle from the scene.

EDITORIAL ...

THIS AROUSES THE CURIOSITY

Whereas a notice of application by the Town of Lindsay to dispense with a vote of the electors has in the press, there is usually a certain amount of interest on the part of the readers. This curiosity has again been aroused by the notice in Thursday's issue of "The Post" advising ratepayers that "the council of the Corporation of the Town of Lindsay intends to apply to the Ontario Municipal Board for approval of a programme of installation of essential street lights in the Town of Lindsay at an estimated cost of $23,500.00, the amount should be raised by the sale of debentures payable out of the general rate over a period not exceeding ten years."

In the notice referred to above, the curiosity of some ratepayers centres around what the term "essential street lights" really means. In other words, they desire a clearer definition of the proposed lighting programme which accords with the advertisement of intent to dispense with a vote of the ratepayers.

As for my part, I favor the idea of having such matters clearly defined so that the taxpayers are not placed in the position of "buying a pig in a poke". How do you feel about it?

Remember way back when

APRIL 3, 1934

All the loot taken from the local stores by the band had been accounted for. Last night One Constable Thornbury and Constable Foster and one of the burglars journeyed to Reabro where the latter stated a portion of the stolen goods had been secreted. Previous to this however, Wm. McMann, of Reabro and Constable Thornbury that he had found several articles of jewelry etc. When the officers and the band arrived at Reabro, they found that the spot where McMann found the loot was a mile from the spot where the Midland Railway crosses the highway. The goods were placed between two logs and covered with cedar bough which the bandits cut with their knives. The loot consisted of three lockets, a gold watch, two rings and a cuff button. The young bandit stated that they left the watch there because there was a name engraved on it. After visiting this spot the police came back to Cunningham Corners the boys then took them down the railway track a short distance and pointed out another hiding place, where considerable loot was found. The young boy says the reason they hid the goods was because they had too much to carry.

APRIL 3, 1939

For the second time in its history the Lindsay Boys' Band organisation suffered loss through fire when the partition which divides the band room caught fire. Dense clouds of smoke from the smouldering beaverboard made it difficult to locate the seat of the blaze. Firemen doused their gas masks and finally subdued the fire. The principal damage was done by the water and officers of the association stated that considerable redecoration will be necessary to fix up the rooms. Many valuable instruments housed in the back section of the room were undamaged. Water which leaked through the floor of the room caused considerable damage to the products in the fire store operated by R.W. Smith directly under the band room. It is understood that insurance was carried which will cover this loss. Members of the band told Fire Chief H. McCullum that they had been in the band room during 6:30 p.m. and Mr. Smith stated he heard something fall upstairs about eight o'clock but paid no attention to it. It is thought that the fire had been smouldering for some hour before it was discovered.

"PINK CARD" DILEMMA SOVED

The dilemma of the motorist's "pink card" has been solved.

All ten provinces have agreed to accept a standard card to show proof of liability insurance. Ontario Transport Minister Irwin Hackett has announced. Before this agreement was reached, Ontario motorists ran the risk when driving in some other provinces of having their license plates removed or even having their vehicles impounded, if they did not have the particular version of proof-of-insurance card that each province required.

Insurance companies have started issuing the new cards on renewal of liability policies. It has a pink background of province color with the heading "Canada Inter-Provincial Motor Vehicle Liability Insurance Card".

The new card was devised by a committee of motor vehicle administrators from all provinces with the co-operation of provincial superintendents of insurance. The chairman of the committee was W. M. Earl, Ontario's Registrar of Motor Vehicles.

Ontario has advocated such a card for many years. Mr. Hackett said.

"I hope in addition will prove to be a step toward the solution of another aspect of the insurance problem that is hurting travel and tourism throughout Canada and causing ill will among visitors," he added.

Ex-grid star, minister to deaf Little Britain - Valentia speaker

Rev. Robert Rumball, former defensive back of the Ottawa Rough Riders who has been ministering to the deaf in the United Church of Canada, will be leading a mission to Little Britain starting Sunday and running through Friday at the United Church.

Rev. Rumball, forsaking a football career with the Rough Riders and the Argonauts for the past six years been pastor of Toronto's Evangelical Church of the World, the world's largest church of 16 missions in Ontario and one in Montreal.

In a church where nobody hears, there are no bowed heads. Their eyes — and their prayers — are on the minister. There is no music in the Ottawa. Dear Mr. Rumball, the deaf and the blind are essentially a "ballot of the fingers" and it is more likely to be criticized on the range of her fingers, as the singer on the range of her voice. (Identified as the guilty party) could fill their needs.

"The Ex-Argo made a covenant with God. If he could learn the sign language, which ordinarily takes from three to six years, in a month, he would know it was his work. He did learn it and from that moment on followed in his circuit-riding father's spiritual footsteps."

Rev. Rumball can be heard at 11 a.m. Sunday, April 5th at Little Britain and at 7 a.m. Sunday, Monday, April 6th at 7 a.m. at Little Britain and on Thursday, April 8th at 7 a.m. at Little Britain and on Thursday, April 8th at 7 a.m. at Little Britain.

"In 1957," the United Church records, the Toronto deaf called Bob Rumball. It was an experiment in faith on both sides. The ex-grid star did not know the sign language. The deaf could not be sure this rugged, rumpled, curly-headed, decidedly unclerical looking young man (on one of his first trips he forgot his collar and was promptly identified as the guilty party) could fill their needs.

CANADIAN PREFAB CPA ASSOCIATION

WHAT ARE THE SAVINGS IN BUILDING THE PREFABRICATED WAY?

Maximum economy is achieved throughout the entire system. Savings begin with the choice of a performance-proven, architect-designed and pre-engineered plan. The economy of purchasing individual materials at top prices is attained by the Prefabricator, who, being in quantity, accurately predetermined dimensions eliminate waste in the manufacturing process. Early mobile weather delays are kept to a minimum through the use of components. Lower cost of labor, faster and more reliable work, complete control of the prefabricated structure is known at the design stage. The Prefabricator's responsibility for the entire project, the purchaser's own valuable time, ordinarily required in dealing with many subcontractors, is eliminated. The Prefabricator's experience, all at once, can actually represent a considerable saving in dollars and cents.

HOW DOES C. P. A. BENEFIT YOU?

Here are the guiding principles established by the Canadian Prefabricated Association for its members:

- (1) To abide by all government building codes and regulations.
- (2) To keep pace with the latest architectural advancements.
- (3) To maintain strictest quality controls on all materials and workmanship.
- (4) To assure constant research for engineering improvement.
- (5) To accept strict obligation to the customer.
- (6) To safeguard the public's interests at all times.

It will be to your best interest, when considering a Prefab Home, Summer Cottage or Garage, to find out first one of the companies displaying the membership symbol...

At the United Church there was a good attendance at the night service when Rev. Romer's subject was "Waiting our hands of responsibilities" and the choir sang "That's Where Jesus Died For Me". All available space in the United Church was filled with chairs to accommodate those that attended the Easter service and Holy Communion. The choir sang two anthems "God So Loved The World" and "Now Christ Liveth". Flowers in the church were in memory of William Taylor.

Messengers and Explorers met in the church and heard the film strip "Village Boy of India" then held heart meetings. The Explorers had their usual opening exercises. Former chapters of their Study Book "The Golden Calf" was reviewed and the concluding chapter read by Donna McLaughlin, Joanne Balligall, Linda McLaughlin Laurie Turner, and Leanne Dorell gave the worship. Chief Explorer declared the Exploration finished. The Messenger discussed the film. Roll call was "What Easter Means to Me". Too many Lions, too few Merchants

Lions romp home with 7-3 victory

It was a case of too many Lions and too few Merchants at Pictou last night when Lindsay routed Pictou 7-3 to take a three to one game lead in their best of seven quarter finals. The Lions hoped to wrap up the series here Saturday night when the two teams meet in the fifth game.

Gary Lywood, the smallest member of the Lions swept away the blow that rendered the life when he took a flying leap at Larry Lemke after he had dashed. In doing he worked up quite a storm that sucked in another player of each team. When the battles were separated and the penalties rung up, each team lost two players for the remainder of the game. With only 11 regulars to start with the shortage hurt the Merchants' strength. Paul Veenwood took over capably for Gord Frooking and George Babcock did a double shift on right wing increasing the Lions' offence.

The Lions after riding out the snow storm for three hours were allowed about two turns around their end of the ice before the game was started at 9:05 p.m. As a result it took the Lions most of the first period for getting tracking. Pictou scored the first goal at 1:50 and by the noise of their fans one would think that they had the game won. Bobby Lyler led the score shortly before the 18-minute mark when he fired at Holmes from close range.

Lindsay played the Merchants out of the game. The Merchants outshot the Lions 14 to four in the period. A Lindsay penalty in the first minute of the second period gave Pictou a flying start but Wayne Jackett in the Lindsay net stood guard in fine fashion stopping four shots in rapid succession just as the penalty ended. Lindsay's second goal came in the second period first when Bobby Taylor scored. Action in the North Atlantic-Aluminate Hockey Report, Raymond Mease, 5:20.

Monday in Barrie, Wallaceburg and Simcoe are battling for the Western supremacy and the winner will seal the final series against the winner of north vs. East. 8:15 a.m. — and so to bed (7).

When Rick Purdy dug the puck up to Bowry at the point and Gartsch and the puck into the bottom corner just as Larry Holmes came to make the shot. Lindsay outshot Pictou 23-12 in the middle frame. The third period was all Lindsay as far as the scoring went. Ron Pilsworth pointed out the Lions toward their win when he deflected a slow slider from Ray McCabe, steering it into the net.

The Ontario Hockey Association's Barrie series, Barrie won the first game Tuesday night 9-3 then Pictou won Thursday night 7-1 to tie their best of five series at one game each. They play again Sunday in Parry Sound and Hotel.

Visitors in town included Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Jewell, visitors to Mr. and Mrs. Carol and Lerma of Oshawa, McEachern (one Beta Club with Mr. and Mrs. Russell Jewell) who were married at MacLeod, Mr. and Mrs. John the Presbyterian man recent-Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Honeybrook Stolzfuss is back from the deep south and his arrival at Rosedale was greeted by some of the worst weather this spring. (It is spring, you know), but his diadem having had anything to do with it. The accompanying pictures tell the story of the big April shower of snow which fell on this district (Lindsay, Kinmount, Geier, Donald, Loch-ly, Minden, Miner's Bay, Moore's Falls, Norland, Coboonk, Rosedale, Powles' Corners, Cameron and points east, west and south), on Thursday. The tree on the left seems to be praying exactly that the load it is bearing will not be increased and the car in the picture below is pretty well "shaken-out" for April's wintry blast.

Newsman's wife dies following lengthy illness

Agnes Ethel Moyne, wife of well-known Lindsay newspaperman Ford W. Moyne, of 1 Caroline Street, passed away on Friday morning, after an extended illness.

Friends of Mrs. Fred Palmer are glad to hear that she is now about to be at her home in the village again after spending several days at the Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay, where she underwent surgery. Mrs. J. Nowakowski of the Little Britain teaching staff is spending the Easter vacation at her home near Derrville.

Mrs. G. P. Prouse has returned to her home in this community after spending the winter months with her daughter, Miss Margaret Prouse at Galt who is on the teaching staff there.

Word was received here with much regret of the passing of Mr. Eric Sharpe, who was in his 70th year. The deceased was very well and most favorably known in this community as she was a former resident of Little Britain. The funeral of the late Mr. Sharpe was held at the Mackay Funeral Chapel in Lindsay and temporary entombment was made at the Riverside Cemetery vault.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Henderson of Cambray, were recent guests in this community at the home of his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Kelly.

Mr. B. A. Whittier, of Lorneville, was in this district and made quite a number of business calls.

Friends of Mr. Tommy Thornton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Thornton who was seriously injured in a motor accident a couple of weeks ago and who is still confined to the Ross Memorial Hospital in Lindsay are glad to hear that at the time of writing that his condition is now fair and somewhat improved.

Mr. and Mrs. David Little were in attendance at the banquet in Toronto in connection with the Pea Growers' Association and also attended the Sportsman Show.

Late season switch pays off handsomely

(United Press International) spending 55 minutes in the late season switch to the two clubs moved Frank Mahovlich from his old left wing position to the center spot is paying off handsomely for Chuk Punch. The Toronto Maple Leafs scored a 4-0 victory over Montreal and forced the first overtime game in the current playoffs.

The "Big M" figured in all of the mark of the third period and Toronto's goals last night as the Maple Leafs scored a 5-3 in the current playoffs.

Murray Ballour (left) at 8:21 of overtime to give Chicago a Monday morning had spent all 2-5 win in the Detroit Red Wings, who played most of the 40 minutes and will be in the center spot Sunday in Chicago. Mika left loose from the blue line in the overtime session with a blazer that Ballour said at first hit him in the chest then after declared it might have gone in off his knee. Croner said the shot glanced off Ballour's hip.

Detroit's second goal was scored by Gordie Howe at 1:19 of the middle period and tied him with Maurice Richard for the all-time Stanley Cup playoff record of 126 points. It was Howe's 50th career playoff goal.

"I'd probably have been really nervous if I'd known that," Mahovlich said after the game.

Mahovlich had a goal and an assist in Toronto's 2-1 win last Saturday and thus had a hand in every Maple Leaf goal in both Maple Leaf victories. The game was highlighted by 20 penalties, one less than the record these two teams set in the opening game of the series last Thursday. The Canadiens set a team mark by

A rink skipped by Thomas Worsley of Cameron of the Oakwood Curling Club won 8th place honors at the Hootenanny Bonspiel held in Omeene by taking first place in the first event capturing the coveted Gilbey Trophy. The presentation was made by James Drick.

The marathon event
the first attempt at such a program and sponsored by the Omeene Lions' Club, began Thursday evening and ran to late Sunday afternoon with the only break from 7 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Sunday saw the breakup of a successful season for the club.

Thirty-two rinks were entered from Oakwood, Peterborough, Toronto, Dundas, Marmora, Unionville, Port Perry, Simcoe, Keene and Omeene.

Winners of the first event were Tom Worsley (skip) of the Oakwood Curling Club, Thelma Worsley (vice) Elmer Beggs first and Ruby Beggs second.

Keith Campbell's rink from Simcoe, with Elmer Brubaker, Ian MacKachera and Jeanette Rich came second.

Runners up were rinks skipped by Clem Morrison of Omeene and Allan Frahn of Oakwood.

Rose Naylor's rink also of Oakwood took the second event. Barbara MacKay, David MacKay and Yelina Naylor were his teammates.

Second place rink was made up of Roger McGuire, Paul Fren, Max Fren and Alina McGuire.

Runners-up were Edgar Johnson and Richard Vaughn. Club president Art Williamson said the bonspiel was a "huge success".

"We did not think it would be accepted with so much enthusiasm," he said, "and we are certainly planning a similar affair next year."

"In fact", he summed up,
"entries are already in for next year from some of the rinks that were in the 'spiel and also others who were unable to make it."

The center span of Europe's new Burren Bridge, in the Brenner Pass area, is high enough to dwarf the Washington Monument, according to the American Automobile Association.

Semi-finals will go the full seven-game limit

(United Press International)
The National Hockey League's two semi-final Stanley Cup series will go to the full seven-game limit — with both games Thursday night, in Montreal and Chicago.

CHICAGO COACH BILLY REAGY said matter-of-factly, "I take four games to win the series and nothing less than that total yet. 'I don't think the game's outcome will have any effect on the club's morale.'"

ABEL said he would go with Terry Sawchuk in the "big one."

"But," he added, "we'll have Roger Crozier standing by, like we did tonight in case Terry injures his shoulder."

THE SCORING was highlighted by Don McKenney — his third goal in two games — Bob Baun, his first of the series — and Andy Batagatz, his second. McKenney put the Maple Leafs ahead for good when he drilled a 15-footer past Canadian goalie Charlie Hodge at the eight-59 mark of the middle period. Baun made it a 2-0 at 14:07 as he left the penalty box to score and Batagatz wrapped up the scoring in the final session.

ON THE OTHER SIDE of the rink, a defeated Toe Blake blamed the loss on the "fluke changes." He was referring to his players getting caught changing on the fly during two late goals — by Baun and Batagatz. "Some of our guys got mixed up as the puck was going into our zone and that didn't help any," he added.

DETROIT - CHICAGO
Norm Ullman connected for three goals — his second "hat trick" of the playoffs — as Detroit routed the Chicago Black Hawks 7 to 2 to even their series. Ullman got two assists — during a four-goal explosion in the middle period.

AFTER A 1 TO 1 opening period deadlock, veteran Gordie Howe put the wings ahead for his 52nd playoff goal early in the second stanza. Parker MacDonald and Andre Pronovost also tallied before Ullman scored to tie the period scoring. Ullman got an unassisted goal with his team two men short in the final period, while Bruce McGregor got the final Detroit score. Ken Wharram and Stan Mikita scored for Chicago.

DETROIT COURTNEY MANAGER, Sid Abel beamed in the dressing room. "I think we can win the series, now."

"We started the series knowing we had to win one game in Chicago, and we did. It's now, we know we have to win another one, and I think we can."

Preserving the past for posterity

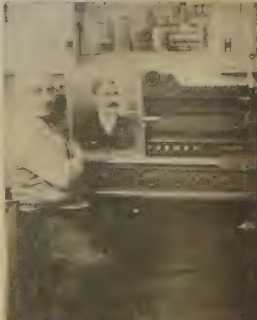

A spinning wheel from the collection of W. A. Kaye. On this one the spokes of the wheel are individually whittled by hand instead of turned on a lathe.

This antique yarn-winder was completely made by hand including the worm gears inside.

W. A. Kaye holds up a handsome gilt and bronze picture frame, at the back of which he found a charcoal drawing. Under his arm is a large volume of Shakespeare, which is actually a hollow box for hiding valuables.

Mr. Kaye displays the charcoal drawing he found at the back of the large picture frame. The organ is also in his collection.

73 FRIENDS PRESENT AT 95th BIRTHDAY CELEBRATION

Sunderland (PNS) — Mrs. of Newmarket, Gordon of Toronto, Cecil of Bracebridge, celebrated her 95th birthday and Mrs. Herb Wilson of Simsbury, Mrs. J.H. Wilson of Sunderland, where she resides.

Mrs. Moore is still enjoying good health and on the previous Sunday attended a celebration at the home of another of her daughters, Mrs. Harvey Shier of Uzbridge, where 73 of her friends and relatives were present.

She has four sons and four daughters, Frank and William for some years to come.

W. A. Kaye of Donald in Haliburton County is unhappy about the continual loss of antiques and mementoes of yesterday from the County, and is encouraging the formation of a museum for Haliburton County by offering to loan his personal collection to an organization that would create such a museum, and has also offered to donate land either near his home in Haliburton or beside his factory in Donald for such a project.

Mr. Kaye has a comprehensive collection of antiques, old coins and personal mementoes, many of them displayed at his woodworking and prefabricated building factory in Donald. The collection is of over 400 pieces including guns, saws, clocks, butter churns, early telephones, wooden planes and tools, rare musical sleigh bells and harness and spinning wheels. Some of the items were collected from local residents in various parts of Haliburton County over the years.

Among the personal items Mr. Kaye has in his collection is his father's wedding suit and shirt, tailored by Woodhouse Tailors in Bracebridge in 1894. Other personal items include a writing secretary brought to Canada from Ireland by his maternal grandfather sometime before 1850. A book given his mother by her teacher in 1880 is another personal item in the collection.

The collection was displayed to members of the public a few weeks ago at Mr. Kaye's factory and a great deal of interest was generated in the museum idea.

The question of a museum for Haliburton County has been raised many times and Norman Maidens of Minden has been most active in the past promoting the idea but without too much success.

"Pardon sir," said the waiter, picking up the money, "but this includes nothing for the waiter." "I didn't eat one did I," asked the man.

OBVIOUSLY NOT DOING THE JOB

The virtually bankrupt Unemployment Insurance Commission is obviously not performing the job it was designed to do and the need for immediate revision is apparent. This need cannot be stressed too much in view of the fact that the demands upon the jobless insurance fund are more likely to increase in proportion to the automation of industry.

Taking an on-the-spot view of the bankruptcy, which is really not a new experience for the commission, it can only be concluded that revenue is running too far behind expenditures. However, we have a feeling that there is more to the financial plight of the commission than meets the eye of the casual observer. Established to serve as a "cushion" during periods of unemployment, we cannot help but wonder if it isn't being used as a "hoax"—if it isn't making people loathe to take work when the opportunity presents itself if the difference between what they might earn by working is not significantly greater than what they can't earn in jobless benefits. We wonder, too, if it isn't possible that the fund does, in some cases at least, tend to destroy initiative. For example, while no one wishes to re-experience the hardships of the "hungry thirties," many enterprises were born of necessity in those days and most of those who were really ambitiously managed to make a living, in some cases quite a good one.

We are, without doubt, confronted with a serious problem in the matter of assisting those without employment and some changes in the financial structure of the fund are going to have to be made if it is to function effectively. Included in such revisions should be further measures to prevent its abuse or misuse. It cannot possibly survive if it encourages laziness and indifference on the part of the nation's unemployed people.

AMPLE EVIDENCE

Anyone who has been following with interest the dispensation of justice at the magistrate's court level in Lindsay, has surely been impressed by the manner in which Magistrate C. W. Guest deals with the cases coming before him. It is apparent that while the magistrate is fair, he is not leaving the door open to repetition of offenses by persons of having dealt too leniently with offenders when leniency was not deemed warranted. This should have provided potential violators of established law with ample evidence of what they may expect should they so lightly commit an illegal act. From what we have observed, the interim magistrate is doing an excellent job and commands the respect of both those who enforce the law and those who defend themselves at cross-purposes with it. If and when a permanent magistrate is named, he will have worthy footsteps to follow.

WHY THE NEED FOR SECRECY?

It is always something disturbing when a public body requests that information be withheld from the public when the reason for such action is not apparent. Such a request was made last week by a Victoria County Council committee dealing with the hiring of an architect to submit proposals for housing and accommodation offered by the county court house. According to available information, the architectural firm was engaged after having been chosen from among several seeking the job. Also according to a report on the development, the committee agreed on the amount to be paid for the firm for its services and thus committed public funds to be spent. This, in our opinion, constitutes the finalization of a public contract and any need for secrecy in disclosing either the name of the architectural firm or the amount it is to receive for its services can only be regarded as obscure, if not completely unwarranted.

In years gone by, and citing Lindsay County as an example of how such matters were handled, tenders for a tenderable contract were opened and read in public (with the press present) and the details of each tender recorded. The matter was then either referred to the proper committee for study and action or acted upon at that time. In either event, there was never any secrecy as to how much was involved or who got the contract. This always seemed like a clean-cut way of handling public business. What is the international which business that way now when public money is being spent?

There may be no grounds for entertaining dark thoughts concerning the county committee's architectural undertakings but refusal to make public details of the arrangement naturally gives rise to some wonderment. The committee would increase in stature in the public eye by taking off the check-rules and making all the facts available. Surely there is nothing to hide in such a relatively small matter—What possible complications could arise from letting the name of the successful architectural firm be known, together with the amount to be paid for its services.

SPRUCING UP THE TOWN HALL AGAIN

It is interesting to note that sand-blasters are at work sprucing up Lindsay's town hall again by removing an ill-fated couple of coats of paint which were taking leave of the building on their own initiative. However, this brief commentary really has nothing to do with improving the appearance of the town hall but rather to comment on the fact that the present structure rather than discard it in favor of something structurally modern. It was inspired by the following from the wires of United Press International which may prompt local officials to take a close look at the historic background of our own municipal headquarters.

"Victoria Hall, Coburg's 100-year-old Town Hall, has been declared a national historic site, it was learned Friday.

Reports and Remarks...

THE NEED IS URGENT

Canada is one of the leading nations in the totality of its effort against cancer. This disease ranks second as a cause of death in our nation. Perhaps nowhere in the world is our effort in the fight against this disease being duplicated.

This year there will be an estimated 45,000 new cases of cancer in Canada. Last year, 24,600 Canadians died of cancer, 365 of whom were under ten years of age.

The Canadian Cancer Society volunteers are keenly aware of these sober statistics. They lead the way in their consciousness of the necessity for regular health check-ups. This is the only method that will permit early diagnosis and save lives. "The Society is an army of men and women working together as volunteers under a common banner.

Founded in 1938, as a lay organization with the blessing of the Canadian Medical Association, it helps to educate the public regarding nature of the disease. It claims today the full support of the Canadian people in its broad, three-pronged programme of education, welfare, and the support of cancer research.

The fact that the Cancer Society has consistently met its rising campaign objective for 15 years is evidence of the concern felt by the people of Canada in this disease and the faith they have in the Society to fight it.

Supported directly by funds from the Cancer Society are 200 scientists and technicians at work on 117 separate projects in 21 laboratories and universities across the country.

This April, $2,000,000 must be raised in Ontario to support the rapidly growing needs of this research, plus the broad education and welfare service programmes with which there would be needless dread and suffering.

The need for this money is as real and as urgent as any need on earth today.

The Canadian Cancer Society.

BRITAIN'S GROWING FANILY OF MAN-MADE FIBRES

In your suit made from wool pulp, or your new spring green coat from petroleum extracts, a by-product of coal, or maybe from trees and oil?

Whatever the derivation, it is likely to be one of the growing British family of man-made fibres now used in clothes and furnishing, household textiles and carpets.

In a spring issue booklet "Facts About Man-Made Fibres," Britain's Man-Made Fibres Federation reveals that these stretch from viscose rayon, the first-born of the family and made from wood pulp by Courtaulds Ltd., to the newest wonder-child of the polypropylene group (from LCI, Ltd.), from a made from a gas which is a by-product of oil. The new range in this line grows almost daily and has now gone from ropes and cords, and fishing nets, to the latest to appear in the shops—blankets for your beds! Man-made fibres go into the shops under some 17 trade names in Britain, while some are also imported into the country to compete for the $700 million-a-year market in this field. Export of British-man-made fibres ran to approximately $187 million last year.

—A London Letter

IT HAPPENS EVERYWHERE

They took a little gravel, and they took a little tar, with various ingredients imported from afar; they hammered it and rolled it and they went away and they said they had a pavement to last for many a day.

They came with picks and shovels out to lay a water main, and they called the workmen to put it back again; to lay a railway cable they took it up once more, and then they put it back again just where it was before. They took it up for conduits, to run the telephone, and then they put it back again as hard as any stone; they tore it up for wires, to feed the electric light; and then they put it back again, which was no more than right.

Oh, the pavement's full of furrows, there are patches everywhere; you'd like to ride upon it, but it's seldom you do. It's a damned good pavement, a credit to the coveys; they're always digging it up or putting it of down. —Quod Erat Demonstrandum.

Poverty

Content with poverty, my soul I am;
And virtue, though in rags, will keep me warm.
—Dryden.

"Elevation of the hall to a site was revealed in a letter from Northern Affairs Minister Arthur Laing to Dr. Pauline Jewett, Liberal member of parliament for Northumberland riding.

"The minister said a plaque would be installed at the site signifying the building's importance to the history of Upper Canada.

"Victoria Hall, opened in 1860 by the then Prince of Wales, who later became King Edward the Seventh, was built at a cost of 22-thousand dollars. Its value today is estimated at more than one-million dollars.

"Currently the center for the municipal corporation, the building until five years ago also was the headquarters for the United Counties Council of Northumberland and Durham.

"The century-old building is noted for two distinctive features—its courtroom, now magistrate's court, which is a replica of one of the earlier courtrooms of London's Old Bailey, and the famous Victoria Opera House, which seats 600 and is situated above the courtroom."

It's a long way from home but these Van Does don't seem a bit homesick as they explore the country during side trips before being assigned the difficult task of keeping the peace in strife-torn Ceylon.

FOURTH TO OCCUR IN LINDSAY SINCE YEAR'S END

runner by "the observer"

The next day after we got the ashes, mother would prepare her leitch. She set the barrel of ashes on a plank about four feet square and raised the plank about a foot from the ground. The plank would have grooved in it so that the lye, when it started to run, would follow the grooves down to the front and drop into an iron pot. When the pot was full of lye it would be emptied into the big black iron settle that would be hanging on a tripod over a slow fire. All the grease that she and Pakey had accumulated during the year would be put in the pot over the fire and this process would continue until she had a barrel of soap all ready for summer. She boiled some of the soap still longer and from this she made hard soap. This hard soap would certainly loosen the dirt on your hands.

Besides helping with the making of soap, the girls had the calves to feed and they did all the milking. They also planted the garden and looked after the hoeing. On Saturday they had to prepare baking for the Sunday feast for there would be sure to be a gang in for supper. So all in all the girls had a busy life of it.

The boys, of course, had to help with all the farm work. There was seed to be cleaned and potatoes to be planted, and the ground cultivated and planted. The sheep on the place had to be washed and when it had thoroughly dried, the sheep had to be sheared. The manure had to be taken out in the wagon and spread on the field. A year's supply of wood had to be sawed in stove lengths and when it was all sawed had to be split and neatly piled. Sawing this wood generally took about two weeks for it had to be done by means of the hand-drawn crosscut saw.

When harvest time came the harvest had to be harvested. Then threshing would start and in those days, neighbors always exchanged work during the threshing season. After the grain was all harvested and stacked, plowing would start since all the land had and threshed, plowing would start once the corn had to be plowed for next year's crop. It would now be almost winter and horses and cattle had to be stabled and fed. The chores had to be attended to and, as the family advanced in years the older boys and girls would good bill-of-fare for it produced some noble men and women.

LINDSAY ALL STAR PEEWEES HONORED GUESTS AT GAME

Gutter Abercrombie and his Lindsay All Star Pee Wees were guests of honour at the Lindsay-Picton Hockey game Saturday night, and rightly so. The Stars returned to the arena Saturday night after a week of rugged hockey action in Goderich where they won four games, only to lose out in the Championship final Thursday night. The Lindsay Stars defeated Leamington, Stratford, Galt, and Waterloo to emerge in the finals but ran out of legs in the second game of the playoffs to the powerful Riverside team.

Saturday night the Stars were welcomed to Lindsay by the Lindsay bench while the two Junior "C" teams lined up on the blue lines. With Ron Hunt as M.C. team Captain Gord Grider presented the finalist trophy to Bob Rowe, chairman of the Lindsay Minor Hockey Association. The players with their souvenir sweat hats on, were introduced to the full house of spectators as they

Top Ten

The little bird that flies on the whole of change took a drop in Beale popularity... says teenagers are only buying one Beale out of every two records they invest in... as compared to an almost eighty per cent edge for the new top last week... It's hard to fathom... in view of this... how the shaggy four managed to maintain its place on the chart... plus two new ones. Tenth spot this week is shared by the Beatles, who have moved up from... "Love Me Do"... and old "Batch"... with his raucous awlanger... "Hello Dido"... Nix is also split, between "Hi Hums Me" and the flip "Kissin' Cousins"... by Davis... slipping right off, apparently... and "Fun Fun Fun" as preached California-style by the Beach Boys... also a drop. Here they are... the top ten tunes across Canada... this week totalling 12 because of tie for ninth and tenth spots: 1. Can't Buy Me Love: 2. All My Loving: 3. I Want To Hold Your Hand: 4. Twist and Shout: 5. Glad All Over: 6. This Boy: 7. She Loves You: 8. Suspicion: 9. (The) Fun, Fun, Fun (the) Kinks: 10. Christine and The Hurt: 11. (The) Hello Dido: 12. Love Me Do, UPI.

LINDSAY CAMERA CLUB FOUNDER MAKES RECORD CONTRIBUTION

41 transparencies accepted by National Collection The founder of the Lindsay has developed in the past 18 years, before which time he had given no serious thought to photography as a hobby but now wishes he had.

The Lindsay Camera Club, founded the Lindsay Camera National Museum of Canada.

The basis of his pride lies in these extracts from a letter received by him from Mr. R. J. Steele, secretary of the National Collection, quoted:

It is my distinct pleasure now to advise you that the Judges selected this unprecedented number of 41 of your transparencies for inclusion in the National Collection. This is truly remarkable. The high standards to which the judges were coupled with the requirements of unanimous acceptance by all three judges normally restricts the selection rate to about 30 per cent. I am sure that the number that you have had selected this year, will stand as a record for a very long time.

You might be interested in knowing that the collection was considerably strengthened this year. With over 1,000 prints, we selected 350 for the collection. (You can see that your entries totalled over 10 per cent of our selection. Unquote.

Mr. Greenstock, who specializes in closeup shots of wild flowers, has photos of over 323 different kinds of his communications with the National Collection officials contain expressions for his commendation for the still be developed in this field. In addition to the 41 transparencies accepted this year, the Lindsay Camera Club has been accepted in 1963. His remarkable skill with the camera

Quebec only one victory away from eliminating Pittsburgh

United Press International The Quebec Aces, taking advantage of Roger Crozier's absence, are only one victory away from eliminating the Pittsburgh Hornets in the American Hockey League Calder Cup playoffs today.

The Aces scored a 4-1 victory over Pittsburgh last night with Joe Daley snubbing in the Hornets' net and will take a commanding 3-0 lead in the best-of-seven series to the steel city when the competition resumes Wednesday night.

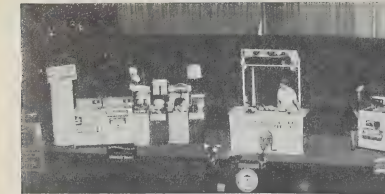

Crozier, who topped the league's netminders with a 2.34 in goals against average during the regular season, is filling.

Rink-less Canadian Midgets double score on Lakefield

The rink-less Canadian Midgets doubled the score on Lakefield Midgets in O.M.H.A. action at the Kiwanis Arena Friday night, being only nine goals away from eliminating the Lakefield Midgets. The Lakefield Midgets defeated the 14-man Lakefield crew lone handed, Dale playing almost the full game, scoring six of their goals, five of them unassisted after the first 10 minutes.

Lakefield put a good battle through the first period scoring first on two occasions and the period tied at two drew one major.

THERE IS A GROWING FEELING...

There is a growing feeling that the curve on Highway 7B at the western approach to Angell St. is inadequately marked from the standpoint of motorists using the road who are not familiar with it.

For some unknown reason, the approach to the curve which is in a 50-mile zone, a speed limit curve from the west is more clearly marked and that a reduced speed limit be set. While they are about it, they might as well mark a sign warning motorists that there is a hospital zone ahead.

APRIL 10, 1939

Damage estimated at $500.00 was done to the interior of the building and contents of the Curtis Garage, William Street N., when a fire broke out in the basement. The garage which had been recently acquired by Edward Stone well-known Lindsay man, has been just re-decorated and it was planned to re-open the business in a few days. Water, smoke an fire caused a great deal of damage and it will be necessary to do the work of decorating over again. The fire was noticed by Ross Taylor, local young man, who turned in the alarm at 12.15. Dense smoke made it difficult to locate the seat of the fire in a small store room in the basement of the building. Many of the supports and much of the stock was destroyed by the fire while the smoke and water added to the damage. Employees of the garage stated this morning that when they left the building shortly after twelve o'clock there was no sign of fire as an inspection of the basement had been made just before they left.

At one stage, the fire appeared to be of such serious proportion that the building might be threatened and with it, other buildings of the business section.

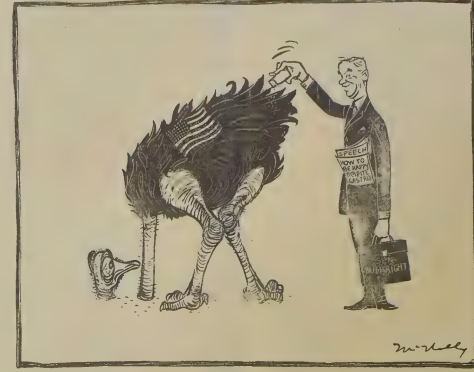

Reports and Remarks...

"IT'S BEEN A GREAT RUN"

"As I sit on the study on a beautiful, cool, August afternoon, I look back with many thanks. It has been a great run. I wouldn't have missed it for anything. Much could, and should have been better, and I have by no means done what I should have done with all that I have been given. But the over-all experience of being alive has been a thrilling experience. I believe that this is a doorway to more of it: clearer, cleaner, better, with more of the secret opened than looked. I do not feel much confidence in myself as regards all this, for I have ever "deserved" eternal life. But with Christ's atonement, and Him gone on before, I have neither doubt nor fear whether I am here or in a better one or long one. I believe I shall see Him and know Him, and that eternity will be an endless opportunity to consort with the great souls and the lesser ones who have entered into the freedom of the heavenly life. It is life forgiveness and grace that give confidence and merits of our own. But again I say, it has been a great run. I'm thankful for it, as are all the people who have helped to make it life, and especially those closest and dearest to me.

"First You Get Their Attention..."

Mrs. J. E. Anderson speaks on fourth chapter of study book

Mrs. C. Suggitt, President of the Elizabeth Ryker Mission Circle of Cambridge Street Baptist Church opened the April Meeting by reading an interesting letter from Miss Ruth Dryden, a missionary in Bolivia, South America.

The business period followed and the Roll Call and offering.

Mrs. J. E. Anderson then presented a fine paper on the fourth chapter of the Study Book "Rising Tides in India". This chapter dealt primarily with the beginning of Baptist Missionary endeavor in India and brought the reader up to date on recent developments.

In 1835 an American Baptist missionary was sent on his first voyage to India. They are of small size and are mounted on carriages. Jap Frey deserves the thanks of our citizens for his unflinching sale in the interests of America.

Chatterbox

Hats go with high C's in the pages of one of the operatic world's bright new stars. Gianna D'Angelo, coloratura of the Met, La Scala and concert stage uses hats to change face.

She explained that with her singing schedule she figures the files about 50 thousand miles a year—she must do it to necessity travel light.

So she makes up her wardrobe with a few basic suits and dresses and creates a new image for various occasions simply by changing hats. Such as, a hat for plane arrival, a hat for an interview, a hat for after-performance suppers drawn from her collection of 50 chapeaux.

Granted, she said, this slight of hat trick would mean a lot of space-taking boxes on a plane, but she's whittled this problem too. She ships her hats in specially constructed canvas boxes by air freight to the city of her next appearance.

The suburban-haired beauty of Montreal, Conn., said there were other reasons why she's developed this wardrobe technique.

"For one thing, I've always loved hats," she said. "I think the face gives the first impression. A woman's face first at, photographed and talked to 90 per cent of the time from the shoulders up. A man looks at a woman's face first, then maybe the legs."

She has wound "taxi drivers very sensitive to hats", which helps her grab a cab while others wait or whistle in vain.

Miss D'Angelo during a brief break in singing engagements took us on a tour of closets in her New York apartment to show some of the 50, some of them made for her by Sally Victor, New York, and made by Anna, milliner in Milan, Italy, where the singer now has a home also.

She said she never throws a hat away—"A good hat doesn't go out of style". She produced a cerise and green velvet turban she's had since 1945. Out came a cocktail clock in soft brown velvet in its third year. And out came her elegant white Panama with wide brim and huge black taffeta bow at the front.

The collection includes a brown mink cartwheel and a chinchilla-trimmed grey velvet hat of outside proportions. "Two of my favorites," said the singer, "I never wear either without getting a compliment."

Beauty Tip
For a soft and smooth complexion use a cleansing cream and a skin refresher before applying some moistening cream at bedtime.

It's a strapping year afoot. Thin straps give a bare look in the walking sling. Wider straps like sturdier belts for comfortable walking shoes.

Cresswell
Mrs. Armand Lefebvre of Ottawa, spent a few days with her mother, Mrs. Clarence Switzer. Other visitors at the Switzer home were Mrs. Gordon Jeffrey of Port Perry.

Mrs. and Mrs. Harry Wood and family of London were visitors with Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Wood.

Master Gordon Dixon of Toronto visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Franklin. Mrs. Elizabeth Brown of Lindsay visited her friend, Miss Shirley McPhaden.

Mrs. Evelyn Davey, a former resident in this village has purchased a new brick ranch-type bungalow in the village of Oakville.

The community welcomes to their midst Mr. and Mrs. James Mayberry and children, who have purchased the farm, formerly owned by Mr. and Mrs. Archie Fisher.

The sympathy of the village goes out to Mr. and Mrs. Percy Brown on the sudden death by accident of their sixteen-year-old granddaughter, Beveline Brown of Cherry-road. Beveline's car, on an attempt to avoid striking some small girls playing on the road rolled down a 20-foot embankment, killing her instantly and severely injuring the hand of her friend, Miss Merrill Langdon of Toronto.

Mission Circle

April meet

There were 11 members and one visitor present at the April meeting of the Scotch Line Mission Circle which was held at the home of Mrs. Torrance Robertson.

The meeting opened with a hymn and the Lord's Prayer. Prayers of thanks were read from the Scott Mission to the boxes of used clothing sent last month and from the Children's Aid Society for the layette. This was especially appreciated as they had none on hand. Mrs. Beirton Robertson reported that the books had arrived for distribution to the hospital and nursing home at Bobcaygeon. It was decided to send this item money to the Fellowship of the Cross.

After requesting it be used for the work in Quebec under Murray Heron, they are hoping to build an addition to their present church. The roll call was a verse including the name of a woman in the Bible.

The scripture was taken from John. This was in keeping with Mrs. Arthur Kennedy's on "Martha." The chapter from the book "The Good Tree" was read by Mrs. Joe Robertson. The topic was taken from Psalm's Mrs. Kimble favored with a solo and two short poems were then read by Mrs. Miller.

The meeting closed with prayer by Mrs. Torrance Robertson and a hymn. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess at the close of the meeting.

Improved safety facilities at park

Improved facilities at the Mariposa-Oak Park were discussed by the Township Council this week as a possible centennial project.

It was felt by some members that the installation of playground equipment and further improvements for child safety should be studied. It was suggested that a meeting be held between representatives of both townships to discuss the possibilities.

Under the centennial program, the provincial and federal governments would each provide a dollar for every dollar spent by the townships. The cash on hand in addition to playground equipment might be a safety factor in keeping the children away from the beach where they were pulled up on the sand.

The building of a wharf would be a considerable help, he also pointed out.

SPEAKER TELLS KIWANIANS: Music Festival "Artistic" rather than financial success

W. P. Perry told members of the Lindsay Central Exhibit the Kiwanis Club Tuesday that, although the successful Music Festival was not a big financial success, that it was an artistic success. He said it was not large and should be extended over a week rather than be confined to five days. He stated that contestants displayed exceptional talent and according to the adjudicators, the talent was comparable to the best of talent in larger festivals. Mr. Perry remarked that if the Kiwanis club did not favour the exhibition to sponsor the event, a decision should be reached at once in order that a new sponsor might be obtained. He said it was his intention to start planning next year's festival at once.

Kiwanian E. V. Johnson and Mrs. Price were commended for their work in connection with the festival.

Mr. Perry claimed the festival, especially when the organization was in its prime, greatly benefited Kent Street merchants. He said that when he had been associated with a local business on Kent street he had noted the festival brought more business to Kent street merchants than care and attention.

The Lindsay Hydro-Electric Corporation announced its report shows a net surplus of $43,568, which represents 8.4% of total revenue for the year and an increase of better than 10% over that of the preceding year. "This increase is very encouraging in the light of increased expenditures both locally and in the cost of power," said Hydro manager Jack Lightbody.

Mr. Lightbody said the revenue increased by approximately $15,500 in domestic service, $9,500 in commercial service and approximately $4,000 on industrial power service; for a total increase in revenue of approximately $29,000.

Operating expenditures increased by approximately $17,800, all of which can be attributed to an increase of over 100,000 in the cost of power purchased as there were slight reductions in several of the operating accounts, said Mr. Lightbody. The Commission's cash position has not improved during the year due to the large capital expenditures, and undoubtedly it will be necessary for the Commission to increase its capital expenditures by the issuance of debentures for which approval of a total of $100,000 has already been received from the Hydro-Electric Power Commission.

Mr. Lightbody said that a glass roof had already been put on the roof of a disturbing chain of events that was repeating the roof with a blow torch when the roof collapsed, and he set the roof on fire. The roof was purchased and had been evacuated from a movie theatre next door.

Youth admits breaking and entering — put on probation

A young Windsor boy, 17 years old John L. Fountain, picked up by the Mounties last week in an abandoned Laund the breaking and entering of Doris Foresta child.

His leaving a quantity of the stolen goods in the cabin and a search alarm put out by the father of the boy, resulted in his arrest.

The father told the court that the boy had had an argument with his mother and had left the house.

When the boy did not return, he informed the police.

The boy was subject to epileptic fits, he said, and required certain drugs.

"I thought this was pre-emptive, I would not be hit by a light and told to send you to jail," remarked the magistrate "but in a quantity of goods, including radios, watches, hunting out your mother".

"SOFT HATCH" DRIVING SOFT TOP SAYS MAGISTRATE

Manilla resident, Arthur E. Short was fined $200 and costs but there was also a "soft hatch" driving it, and that Short was very fortunate not to be fined with a manslaughter charge.

In March on the Hillhead Court, Mr. McGregor told of checking the accident and finding the late model car had a complete write-off after travelling 400 feet on the road, travelled back on the pavement for another 88 feet, turned over, burned for 25 feet and travelled 15 feet to where it came to rest.

Short received head injuries and a broken arm. He was also injured, said the officer.

Friendship
If a man does not make new acquaintances, as he advances through life, he will soon find himself alone. A man, Sir, should keep his friendship in constant repair. —Samuel Johnson.

Reports and Remarks...

A BANKING MUSEUM
A bank cashier today would be startled to receive a cheque signed "Your loving friend". But there was nothing unusual about this personal touch in the early days of banking in England some 300 years ago. Many banks can be seen in a banking museum recently opened to the public by Glynn, Mills and Company, one of the old established banking houses of the City of London.

Speaking in the BBC General Overseas Service Programme "Here and Now", the archivist of the bank, Sidney Shelton, described how until the middle of the seventeenth century English merchants and others would send a deposit in the Tower of London, which was opened to the public by Glynn, Mills and Company, one of the old established banking houses of the City of London.

The forerunner of the cheque (a word which did not come into use until well on in the last century) was the letter from a customer asking the goldsmith to pay any individual or bearer a particular sum and debit their account. These were known as "draw notes and were usually signed in such a personal manner as 'your loving friend'. Nor, it appears, did clients have to worry about bank closing hours, as witness a letter on record from the Duchess of Beaufort in 1689: "I desire you will meet me at Bedford House this evening at six o'clock and bring with you one hundred pound." As a footnote she adds, "My lord is very well".

Remember way back when

APRIL 15, 1914
A meeting of the committee having in hand the monster Firemen's Tournament and Band Competition to be held in Lindsay in June, met in the band hall for the purpose of adding the finishing touches to the program. The value of the prizes offered in the different events is an indication of the importance of the celebration. It promises to be the biggest demonstration ever held in this part of the province and will be a real letter in the history of Lindsay.

Wants to Purchase Old Hospital
Mr. E. Oliver appeared before City Council on April 11th with the object of getting a bylaw passed authorizing the reeve to sign a deed for the sale of the old Lindsay Hospital property to him. One who has a vast interest. The council instructed Mr. Oliver that they had no official communication from the town council in regard to the matter and as the town had a two thirds interest therein, they would have to defer action until there was an understanding between the two municipalities in regard thereto.

APRIL 15, 1929
Assured by Premier Hepburn of the government's willingness to set up a House Committee to investigate all signs of liberal administration by the Lands and Forests Department, Ontario Minister George A. Drew served notice in the legislature yesterday that he was determined to the objective he has planned he will not be deterred by reports or suggestions or rumors of alleged misadministration by former Conservative governments. The Drew demand for an inquiry was embodied in a resolution, notice of which he gave the House two days ago. In promptly accepting the resolution yesterday without a word of objection or observation, Mr. Hepburn took a surprise attitude. With the Departments of Lands and Forests and the Hon. Peter H. Fisher now operating at an annual surprise rate instead of "in the red" as was the case when the Liberals assumed office in 1953, he welcomed, he said, any action that might tend to improve that favourable position.

Speaker at Joint Meeting
In a typical Jimenez Basso fashion, the mayor of Peterborough addressed a joint meeting of the Lindsay and Kitchener Clubs today. His ready wit and outspoken comments on the economic and social conditions which exist in Canada at the present time were greatly enjoyed by the large number of business and professional men present.

In the dear, dim, distant days...

FIGHTING DAYS OF SIR SAM HUGHES RECALLED

The millions of dollars being budgeted for yearly by the Dominion Government for further development and expansion of the Trent Valley Canal recalls to many districts people the fighting days of the late Major General, the Honourable Sir Sam Hughes, who represented the federal riding in the House of Commons. Sam Hughes was a fighter with long, tough and fists and fought things done. He envisioned the Trent Valley Canal as a rail waterway to transport vessels from Georgian Bay to Lake Ontario, and as far back as the early thirties hundreds, he managed to squeeze through estimates in the government budget for the Trent Valley Canal.

In the last year or two, a million dollars was expended on the canal locks at Preston Falls and further millions, some twelve in all, are booked to be spent on the system in the next year or two.

History recalls that in the days of the present government when Sam Hughes was Minister of Militia (around 1913), that government set aside one of the largest amounts ever placed in the estimate for work to be done on the Trent Valley Canal, and the estimates as brought down called for an expenditure of over two million dollars on the canal.

Two million dollars was a lot of money in those days. Remembered that there were twenty representatives, including Col. the Hon. Sir Sam Hughes, in the House at Ottawa, at that time, from ridings bordering on the Trent Canal.

In the estimates brought down, one million, nine hundred thousand dollars was set aside for construction work on the canal and twenty thousand dollars to meet damages incurred on drowned lands caused by flooding. Twenty thousand dollars was also set aside for the building of a new bridge across the Trent River at Frankford, while forty thousand, five hundred dollars was set aside for income purposes. This latter amount included some twelve or fifteen thousand dollars for Lindsay for dredging the channel of the Scugog River and improving a number of the lighthouses. New lighthouses were to be erected including a large one at Sturgeon Point, and new lighthouses on Lake Simcoe. One hundred and twenty-five thousand dollars was set aside for maintenance and repairs.

In fact, there never has been a government that had dealt more liberally for the Trent Canal than the Borden government and Col. the Hon. Sir Sam Hughes, Minister of Militia and Defence, representing the Riding of Victoria and Harbourton.

Today, the Trent Valley Canal has on its system the largest lift locks in the world at Peterboro and the second largest in the world at the field. The number of lockages from Georgian Bay to Lake Ontario total over twenty thousand a year and the amount of dollars spent in the system.

About 80 people patronized the tea which was a splendid turn out, considering the weather. The "Penny Table" was a very popular attraction and tickets were sold on a cake made and decorated to represent a "Spring Table" which was won by Enid McLaur. For some time, tickets had been sold on a beautiful leather hand bag made by Hilja Chynoweth and a luncheon set donated was the lunch set.

The hand bag was made for this occasion, the hand bag given to David Austin from Miss Irene Hicks, Victoria Road.

The President and members of the Library Board extended their thanks to all who helped in any way, to make this annual tea a success. The Library building has been extended but there is still much work to be done inside. When completed, the Board Valentia (PNS) — A pleasant time was spent at the home of Mrs. and Mrs. Roy Grills, honour of his mother, Mrs. John Grills, who celebrated her 85th birthday, April 14th. Mrs. Grills received many beautiful birthday cards and gifts from her family and friends. Mrs. Grills is quite active and enjoys going out, and listening to the T.V. Their present were her grandchildren, Mrs. and Mrs. Grace Grills, and Mrs. Carolyn Grills and three great-grandchildren. All join in wishing Mrs. Grills many more happy birthdays.

DECORATING IDEAS

Bring a springlike newness to your kitchen by making the eating area the high spot of the whole room.

Take a look at your back-ground (linoleum and wallpaper) and with brighter colors if you need to. Then be sure enough to make the area very special with a small, colorful rug. It will come up easily when you need a change.

Next, choose handsome, high-backed chairs and combine them with a pedestal table.

The biggest ingredient in the following free-and-easy play room is a garage.

It is very large. All the rest came as variety. If you have a double garage, you can have a running start on a new room. Replace the door with a sliding glass door and install adequate lighting and electrical outlets, and you'll find your home suddenly big. The last step is to convert the driveway just into patio space. You may want to reserve the family car for a new free-standing carport or a new parking area in an unused part of your yard.

GAY-BLOOMING FLOWERS

Choose up the darker corners of the garden with gay-blooming flowers. Shaded areas offer an opportunity to grow some of the beautiful annual and perennial plants that to-

One of the best uses of the big tree in the garden is planted for fibrous-rooted shrubs. Filtered light encourages these thrifty plants to cover themselves with myriads of many-shaded blossoms that cheer summer days.

A composition

Ed. Note: The following composition by Elaine Graham of Canington is really a remarkable contribution in that it bespeaks a youthful confidence in the future of our nation which is actually very mature. We can do with much more thinking along these lines and much less in terms of separatism and duality as we march toward the 100th year of confederation.

"THE CLIMB"

My world is my country, my country is Canada. She surrounds me filling my heart till I fear I will burst. To hear her name whispered somewhere is to hear the roar of freedom and my heart begins to pound, my soul lights up, my spirit blazes with a fire that flashes an enthusiastic sparkle into my eyes.

Canada is at peace, now, many years after the World War that lured her men to deaths that she might carry on. Sharp is the contrast between the blazing battles of 1939 to 1945 and the contentment of 1944. Yet, courage is still here — the courage to fight for peace, for freedom, for mankind, and for God.

Canada is not perfect by any means. She does not profess to be. As with any nation our trials are many, our crosses be none too light, our destination is high above us and the hill is very steep. Our feet are unsure but our faith is strong. The latter will take us upward—ever higher, ever better, never ceasing. Sometimes our torches all but burn out and we stumble blindly in the dark. A voice comes to us in our despair. "And He shall have dominion also from sea unto sea and from the river unto the ends of the earth." Suddenly our light burns bright, our strength is renewed and part of our road conquered.

We have people of many nationalities in Canada who have chosen our land for a home. We must stand as one to meet Fate or go crashing to the foot of the mountains we have commenced to climb. Once in a while we start to slip backwards but if we are careful our next step will take us forward even farther than before. If we all find a firm footing on the towering hill the summit shall be reached.

The Northeast Corner by "the observer"

Last summer I had the pleasure of spending a very happy afternoon viewing all the exhibits that are on display in the Victoria County Museum and I can honestly say that for the length of time they have been collecting they have a very fine collection of articles that were used by the early pioneers of this county.

Many of the exhibits are well over one hundred years old and the Historical Society is to be highly commended for the interest they are taking in preserving the working tools of the early pioneers. Dr. R. M. Parker is the president of the society and evidently he is giving real leadership to the work.

There is a lot of history within the walls of the museum and every teacher in Victoria County could not do better than to have her trustees declare a half holiday and bring all her pupils to the museum and have the Curator explain what the different articles were used for in the early log houses of the pioneers.

In the early days every farmer had a small flock of sheep and the wool from these sheep was spun by the house-wife to make stockings and underwear for the whole family. In the first place she had to "card" the wool and make it into "rolls." You will see a pair of cards in the museum. Then she spun the "rolls" on her spinning wheel and made the yarn. If she wanted coarse yarn for coarse work socks she would twist two or three strands of the finer yarn into one coarse strand. They also have the spinning wheels on display. Perhaps some of they might be able to find some old hen who in her younger days spent many an hour spinning and she would be able to actually demonstrate the art of spinning.

There were no combines or threshing machines in the early days and so the farmer had to thresh his own grain. He did this with a "flail." A flail is simply two pieces of hard-wood tied together by a piece of leather about 1 or 2 inches long. The flail was swung like a foot longer than the other one. There was a piece of knick in swinging a flail as the farmer flailed the grain from the straw on the barn floor.

There were no electric kettles to boil water, for there was no electrical power available. The only kettle she had was a large heavy iron kettle and when this was filled with water it required about a man's strength to lift it.

Another very interesting article I saw was a ball and chain. This article I understand was donated by our local County Jail. The ball of iron is round and weighs eight pounds. Attached to the ball is a piece of logging chain about five feet long. At the end of the chain is attached a clevis that is locked by a key. When the clevis is opened it is put on a man's ankle and when he was taken out to work he was required to carry the ball and the key long with him and he was prevented from escaping. We can hardly imagine that such a piece of torture was ever used in Victoria County. It looks like anything that might be used in the dark ages when atrocious kinds of punishment was heaped on prisoners and yet this instrument was donated by our own County Jail.

Another interesting article that apparently has quite a history is a sword that belonged to an Englishman by the name of Captain Rae. This man was in the British Army and carried the sword at the battle of Waterloo. In the early days of the County Capt. Rae came to Canada and Victoria County and received a grant of land at Rosborough. He named the village after himself and so we have it to this day. The late J. E. Weldon's family was related.

There is a silver-laced small shovel that was used by John Sandfield McDermott at Canungton to turn the first sod of the Toronto Nipissing Railway.

These are only a few of the interesting articles you will see in the Museum. The display, I understand was carried out by Mr. and Mrs. Burridge and their two daughters and they certainly have all the exhibits beautifully arranged. The exhibit is not as large as you will see if you visit Upper Canada Village but on the other hand there are a lot of articles here that you will not see in Upper Canada Village.

I also noticed a very fine collection of crystal and china and amber glass. There were two cabinets full of crystal and amber glass and another large case with a complete set of Old Willow. I was told there are hundreds of dollars worth of these old specimens and there is a particular story attached to each piece. They also have three or four very fine china cabinets. These were made in England and brought to this county by a man who settled near Barri River. They appear to be made out of English Oak.

Then I spent some time viewing the machinery, etc. they have in the barn that they erected last summer. The barn came from Indian Point and is well over one hundred years old. It was donated by Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Shields of Cobocomb. I was told there are hundreds of dollars worth of these old specimens and there is a particular story attached to each piece. They also have three or four very fine china cabinets. These were made in England and brought to this county by a man who settled near Barri River. They appear to be made out of English Oak.

I also noticed a photograph in first class condition.

I have only given a sketchy account of some of the articles I saw in the Museum and in the barn. There are hundreds more but space will not permit to detail them all. At any rate the Historical Society is performing a very useful task in preserving these old articles and they will become more valuable as they increase in age. It is a work that should have the support of everyone in the County. Many of the articles are home-made or made by the village smith and they all show the ingenuity of the early pioneers.

TIME FOR A REVIEW
Dear Dr. Steiner: I am I feel true that for the past few months you have been writing mostly about the heart? How about discussing some other things people might be interested in? Mrs. H. Comment: As the man said, name your poison. Where do you spend most of your time? N? Perhaps you happened to miss the column which discussed it.

I have been reviewing some of the things I have discussed here. You will agree, I think, that cardiac problems are not the only considerations. Let's just take three (there are many more) in each category from A to Z:

- A. Asthma, aortic disease, appendicitis
- B. bronchitis, bursitis, bunions
- C. colds, cortisone, cancer
- D. dentures, dermatitis, drafts
- E. eyestrain, exercise, electrocardiograms
- F. feet, fear, fungus
- G. gout, gonads (sex glands), gas pains
- H. heart, halois, headaches
- I. lies, injections (shots), insomnia

- J. jelly
- K. keloid, Kahn test, kidneys
- L. liquor, leprosy, laughter
- M. moonface, mid-brain, meals
- N. naps, nocturia, neuritis
- O. ophthalmologist, oophoritis (inflammation of ovary), obesity
- P. pruritis, pain, pelvic repair
- Q. quacks, quartz lamp, quietude
- R. rabid, resentment, resists
- S. sheep, sanity, sorority
- T. tension, typh, tenosynovitis
- U. ureitis (inflammation with in the eye), ulcer, unconsciousness

- V. voice, vitamins, venom
- W. water, wear, weariness
- X. xanthomas, X-rays, X's (Mr. Mrs. and Miss)
- Y. yaws, yellow jaundice, yellow fever
- Z. zipper, zinc oxide, zoonoses (diseases of animals which can be transmitted to man, i.e., rabies, bovine tuberculosis, etc.)

You can't please everybody. Now I expect to hear from readers who think I haven't written enough about the heart; or about cancer, high blood pressure, diabetes and other major diseases. If you will be patient and do your homework (read this column), you will find at last just what I get around to heart disease to your heart, whether or not it happens to be heart disease.

If you'd like the discussion sooner, the best way is to put your request in the mail. Most of my columns are based upon the problems of its readers.

From A to Z, singly or many times over, you will find here the many medical problems that bedevil the average human being. May yours be the life line.

Mr. O: You are correct. The suicide rate is high in Sweden and Denmark, low in Norway. Mrs. W: Yes and No. Mostly NO.

Blackstock (PNS) The W.A. of St. John's Church met in the Parish Hall. The meeting opened with the Lenten hymn.

The Devotional was based on "The Seven Words of the Cross" with Mrs. Ashmore leading and Scripture readings by other members, followed by the regular W.A. prayer.

The Dorcas Society reported all goods received for the bazaar which will be shipped this week. Two new quilts and two quilt tops were donated. The quilts were reported sold in enroute and all plans well underway for the Desert Luncheon. The ladies will have a "house-cleaning" at the Parish Hall. The meeting closed with a benediction after which members made their purchases from the Bazaar and Table.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steinhorn, MD, F.A.C.P.

"WHAT WOULDN'T I GIVE FOR A GOOD NIGHT'S SLEEP!"

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: Some time ago you were interested in receiving letters from readers with suggestions on how they overcome their insomnia. I have you had any luck? What wouldn't I give for a good night's sleep—Mrs. E.

Comment: I have received scores of letters. However, instead of worthwhile tips, that I might pass on, the tone of many letters was one of despair. These poor souls were also looking for some magic way to relieve their sleeplessness.

I am still looking for practical suggestions that may help red-veined, exhausted and hope-forsaken readers who can't seem to come to terms with the goddies of sleep.

I have an idea. I hope it will stir up enough interest in those of you who have overcome insomnia to sit down and write your experiences. Write to me in care of this newspaper, and limit your letter to 80 words. I promise to read every one personally.

For the best suggestions on overcoming insomnia, read the one when I consider the winner an autographed copy of my recent book, "Your Life To Enjoy," thanking you for your unconditional contribution in the battle against insomnia.

An usual, I shall keep your name and identity in confidence. If I reprint your letter, only your initials (or Mr. or Mrs. X) will appear in signature.

IS PAIN EMOTIONAL?

Dear Dr. Steinhorn: I have been having severe, sharp pains and gradually increasing painful menstruations during the past few years. I have been told that they are due to my subconscious desire to have a child. I am 26 and have been married nine years and don't particularly care if I have children or not. I have many interests. It is hard for me to believe that my subconscious isn't doing something physical, and not to "subconscious" desires—Mrs. K.

Comment: In this instance I'll bet on the physical rather than the emotional or subconscious as a cause of your pains. Have you been to a good gynaecologist?

His efforts ended up with quite a bang! John Bulanda, Ontario (UPI) - John Bulanda's efforts at getting warm ended with quite a bang at noon yesterday.

The 66-year-old St. Catharines man blew one end off his home and narrowly escaped death. Churning a sink in a living area over his double garage, Bulanda found the garage a bit chilly and it a space heater for warmth.

However his efforts at getting to the old sink were hampered by a gas stove. Disconnecting the stove, he shoved it to one side and proceeded to dismantle the sink.

Oblivious to the fact that he hadn't turned off the gas, Bulanda curled the sink out of the house. Just as he got outside, the garage blew up, smashing windows in nearby homes and raining wreckage about the neighborhood.

London (UPI) — A small tempest in a teapot is developing today on just who blew the bugle that sounded the charge of the light brigade. The London auction house of Sotheby's insists that it was trumpeter Bill Brittain — whose bugle they are selling next Monday.

But Mrs. Bertha Kearns claims it was "my grandfather, trumpeter-major Henry Joy, who started it all."

"THE POST" LINDSAY, ONTARIO, FRIDAY, APRIL 17TH, 1964

Mrs. (Brigadier) Randall Speller [R]

Devoted entire lifetime to Salvation Army

Mrs. Brig. Randall Speller, a resident of Penelton Falls for the past ten years, passed away on Thursday, April 2nd, 1964, at the East General Hospital in Toronto. She is survived by her husband, Brigadier Randall Speller, one daughter, Edith (Mrs. Major Henry Burdett) and two sons, Randall of Scarborough and Dr. Stuart of Peterborough. A third son, Donald, was killed during World War II.

Mrs. Speller was well-known in Salvation Army work, having devoted her entire life to it. Born Gertrude Lillian Horne, seventy-four years ago in Barrie, Ontario, she was commissioned as an Officer of the Salvation Army in 1908 and served with distinction in many Corps throughout Canada and also in Bermuda. During the war years she and her husband were transferred to War Services work and served in five Red Shield Centres in Canada.

Funeral services were held on Monday, April 6th, at the Royal Funeral Home and were conducted by Commissioner William Dray. Interment was made in Mount Pleasant Cemetery, Toronto.

"Many beautiful floral tributes were evidence of the esteem in which Mrs. Speller was held and the interest and inspiration of her long years of devoted service.

"UNFAIRLY PUSHED" INTO REAPPLYING FOR JOBS, LAKEFIELD TEACHERS CLAIM

The executive committee of the Ontario Public School Men Teachers Federation will meet tomorrow to examine claims by six former teachers at Lakefield Public School that they were unfairly "pushed" into reapplying for their jobs back.

The teachers, including the school principal, all resigned last May in a salary dispute with the school board. They now say they were given until March 31 to apply for reinstatement, even before the board had a signed agreement with the two federations representing the teachers.

The agreement was ratified by the teachers' association last Thursday. S. Murphy's school board, said the condition of the agreement was that the teachers be given the opportunity to reapply for their jobs before the March 31 deadline.

The real McCoy was Young

A man with many aliases and a lengthy criminal record yesterday received a two year prison sentence in Lindsay court.

Arthur Young, who is known under many names, pleaded guilty to a charge of breaking entry and theft at Kent Bunking where he made off with a cheque writing machine.

Young also pleaded guilty to a charge of having possession on an unregistered firearm and guilty of two charges of uttering forged documents. Constable Gordon Dawson of Lindsay police department said his investigation revealed that Young had cashed two phony cheques at Lindsay stores on January 24th of this year. He said a warrant found in his possession at a later date contained numerous false identification cards.

Young requested the magistrate to send him to Kingston penitentiary where he said he wanted to have the opportunity of learning a trade. His term will be served concurrently with an 18-month definite and 18-month indefinite term for similar offences in the Port Hope area. Young had been returned to Lindsay from Cobourg jail under the name of Robert McCoy by Constable Dawson.

ONION AND TOMATO CASEROLE

SPRING TIME DELIGHT

Looking for a vegetable dish with a spring flair? What 1/2 cup onion, sliced green and white and a dash of red. This recipe from the Ontario and tomato casserole has the mixture of flavors to tempt any appetites.

Drain green beans and place half of them in bottom of a 2 quart casserole.

Melt butter and cook onions slowly until they are tender, but not brown. Arrange half the onion rings over the beans. Peel tomatoes and cut in 1/4 inch thick slices. Place half the tomatoes over the onion rings. Sprinkle with salt and pepper to taste.

Arrange beans, onions and tomatoes alternately again. Season. Cover and bake at 350 degrees for 15 minutes. Top with grated cheese and bake to oven until cheese melts and is golden brown, about 10 minutes.

CHICKEN BURGERS FOR HOT LUNCH

For a hearty lunch at noon or after a party, serve chicken. Not just ordinary chicken, but chicken burgers, tempting enough to satisfy the biggest appetites. The Food Products department at MacDonald's Institute, Quebec recommends this recipe for a chicken burger using cooked, diced chicken or turkey.

CHICKEN PATTIES: 1 tablespoon butter, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 1/4 cup diced celery, 1 cup chopped cooked chicken or turkey, 6 tablespoons fine dry bread crumbs, 1/2 cup onion, sliced green and white, 1 tablespoon chopped pimiento, 1/2 green pepper, 1/2 cup salt and pepper to taste, flour for coating, fat or sautéing. Melt butter and cook celery and onion until onion is tender but not brown. Add chicken, bread crumbs, pimiento, pepper and enough chicken broth to moisten for shaping into patties. Season with salt and pepper. Roll slightly and shape into patties to fit bun. The patties may be shaped early and stored in the refrigerator until cooking time.

Coat patties with flour and fry slowly until brown, about five minutes on each side. Meanwhile, toast cut-side of 1/2 cups bread, spread with butter. Fry cranberry relish on half of bread, and onion mix with lettuce and not chicken patties. Serve immediately.

HOUSEHOLD SCRAPPBOOK

When soap has not been rinsed thoroughly out of the bathtub, it is irritating. Sometimes causes a stain resembling iron rust. This discoloration will usually come off if the garment is rewashed. And, of course rinse THOROUGHLY this time!

Police Association "Profoundly Disappointed" With Police Amendment Act 1964 - Inform Premier

Last April, a large delegation of members of the Police Association of Ontario, from all parts of the province, presented a brief to Attorney-General Frederick Cassels, in which they asked that the Police Act and regulations be amended. The Association pointed out that the Police Act and regulations denied to police officers in Ontario basic justice.

The Police Amendment Act, 1964, Bill 99 was made public. The Police Association, representing over 10,000 municipal and provincial police officers has had its under study. The Honourable John M. Roberts, Prime Minister of Ontario, has failed to provide the Police Act with the provisions. The Association have been made known to the Prime Minister their strong disapproval of some of the things which it provides and some of the things it has failed to provide.

The letter reads: "We should like to convey to you the basis of our strong protest respecting the shortcoming of Bill 99 as they affect the welfare of police officers throughout the province."

The Association said their hopes and expectations, following meetings between the Attorney General, members of the Ontario Police Commission and representatives of the Police Association, were turned into disillusionment and frustration when they discovered the Police Amendment Act, 1964 contained practically nothing in the way of legislation which would remedy the long standing objections and grievances that police officers in the province have had to the existing Police Act.

The Association said these objections and grievances have as their source a demand for basic justice and for fair treatment the same as other citizens are entitled to.

The letter to the Prime Minister continues: "What else is at issue when: (1) The present Police Act denies to police bargaining committees the right to counsel whether legal or economic at the bargaining table with management, but on the other hand, does not deny it to management. (2) The present Police Act regulations deny to police officers charged with disciplinary offences the right to counsel and adequate rights of appeal. (3) The responsibility which management has to work out fair collective bargaining agreements with their police employees is being more and more evaded and passed on to boards of arbitration. (4) The impartiality of the appointments of chairmen to boards of arbitration are sometimes in question and as a general rule the proceedings of the boards of arbitration drag out for long periods of time. (5) Ontario Provincial Police employees are denied the right to bargain collectively. (6) There is no fair and equitable established procedure for the adjustment of legitimate grievances of police officers. (7) The legislation which allows payment of police officers on a fee basis has not been repealed. (8) There is no protection for police officers in their association and bargaining activities from intimidation or coercion, intimidation or discrimination."

"To add to our disappointment," continues the Police Association letter to the Prime Minister, "the Police Amendment Act of 1964 proposes certain additions to the Police Act which we consider offensive and dangerous to the interests and welfare of police officers in the province and indeed the public as well. Under Section three of the Police Act, 1964, it is proposed that a member of a police force "shall during his period of employment be a party to any agreement or arrangement with any third party respecting policing or security matters."

"At the present time, with the inadequate wages that are being paid to police officers, the only way in which a large number of policemen in the province can earn enough to support their wives and children is to take on employment outside their regular duty. This is done with the approval of the police department. Such employment would include doing outside police duty at such events as the Canadian National Exhibition and at hockey and other sporting events on the many occasions when firms and members of the public require special services which cannot be provided in the regular way because of the shortage of police manpower."

The letter from the Police Association, of which the foregoing only represents a portion concludes with a request from the Administrator of the Police Association of Ontario for a meeting between the prime Minister and representatives of the association.

Great Lakes are becoming a vast septic tank charges NDP member

Toronto-(UPI)—A New Democratic party member of the Ontario legislature charged Tuesday that the Great Lakes are being turned into a vast septic tank.

Fred Young, member for Toronto-Yorkville, said at least 60 per cent of waste being dumped into the lakes should be treated. Figures from research reports of the Great Lakes Institute, Young said, showed only 10 per cent of the refuse dumped into Lakes Erie and Michigan was treated.

"The member said unless action is taken within 10 years to clean up the lakes, they would be fouled beyond repair."

Young was one of several opposition members who criticized Ontario and Resource Minister J. R. Simnett for failing to deal with the problem of lake pollution.

and reviewed the educational and apprenticeship requirements to become a lawyer and of the rewards such a career offered.

The speaker was introduced by Oliver Geach and thanked by Dorothy Grant. The play, drawn by Doris Neale was won by Rita O'Leary.

Abel cautiously optimistic after Wings upset Leafs 2-1

Toronto (UPI) — Detroit coach Sid Abel was cautiously optimistic last night after his Wings upset the Toronto Maple Leafs 2-1 to take a 3-2 lead in the best-of-seven Stanley Cup final.

Said Abel: "We've got a shot at it now."

The Red Wing Coach was referring to what would be his first Stanley Cup championship since becoming coach of the Wings in the fall of 1957.

The wings, who have gained two of their three victories on Leaf ice, hustled out of the Gardens and Abel said "We're going directly to Toledo," the Wings' traditional retreat during the playoffs.

Abel was slightly disturbed about the overlapping minors referee Frank Urvati called on Bill Gadsby and Muel Pronovost late in the third period with Detroit leading 2-0. Leaf captain George Armstrong got the only Toronto goal while Detroit was two men down and Abel allowed "that if they had tied it up while we were still shorthanded, we really would have been in trouble."

Toronto coach Punch Imlach was not overly happy about the way his team played and mentioned several scoring opportunities they blew.

"If we scored goals on the ones we had chances on, we could have won," he said.

Lions ready and raring to go in third championship game

Coach Gus Bodnar put his Lindsay Lions through a light skating session and then concentrated on shooting practice at the Kivans Arena last night in preparation for tonight's third game in the All Ontario Junior "C" championship. Gus told "The Post" that the boys were much keener and he felt that the two day rest was what they needed.

Several factors may have entered into their 7-2 loss in the second game of the series. Sunday afternoon hockey is distinctly new to the Lions and it was difficult to get into the proper mood for the game. The long travelling distance may have affected both teams alike. Many of the Lindsay fans who attended the game felt that the quick three-period game may have been the determining factor.

With one win for each team, tonight's game starts a brand new series with the Lions needing three wins in five games to gain the crown. The

Pittsburg defeat Chicago 8-5

Pittsburgh best the Chicago Cubs 8 to 5 on Gene Freese's ninth inning three-run pinch homer yesterday. The nine homers — five by the Cubs — fell one short of the National League record.

Cincinnati trounced Houston 10 to 5 in a night game, and wet grounds and cold weather postponed the Mets and Philadelphia game at New York.

Cleveland trimmed Kansas City 5 to 3 to spoil the A's home debut.

Do you know these baby-feeding hints?

Here are some simple, proven ways to make baby-feeding much happier. They may be new to you.

Before you begin

Before you begin each feeding, stop for a moment. Remind yourself to smile, to talk affectionately, to accept spilling accidents calmly. Plan to hold your feedings in a room that's quiet and free of interruptions.

Babies are the best judge of their own appetites. So don't force your baby to eat. And never beg, urge, bribe or threaten your baby into eating.

Make eating easy

Make eating easy for your baby. Carefully choose foods that your baby can swallow smoothly and digest quickly.

One good digestibility test for a cereal is the speed with which it blends with milk or formula.

Heinz Baby Cereals, because they are pre-cooked and specially flaked, blend in 7 1/2 seconds. Tough-fibred cereals take longer. Consequently, they are more difficult to digest.

Digestibility should also determine your choice of strained foods.

Heinz Baby Foods do more

At Heinz we do more than pour our strained foods through a sieve. We force them through—in steam. This pulps them to a predictably fine consistency and makes them easy to digest.

Junior Foods, too, should be digestible—even if swallowed whole. Heinz Junior Foods are. Yet they still have a special texture which encourages chewing.

Retain interest

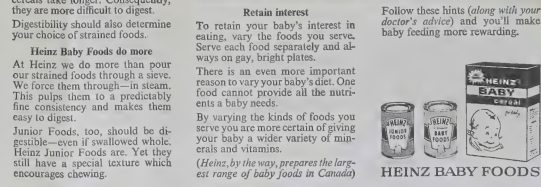

To retain your baby's interest in eating, vary the foods you serve. Serve each food separately and always on dry, bright plates.

There is an even more important reason to vary your baby's diet. One food cannot provide all the nutrients a baby needs.

By varying the kinds of foods you serve you are more certain of giving your baby a wider variety of minerals and vitamins.

(Heinz, by the way, prepares the largest range of baby foods in Canada)

Follow these hints (along with your doctor's advice) and you'll make baby feeding more rewarding.

HEINZ BABY FOODS

The good they do your baby now lasts a lifetime.

Firemen attended two grass fires in Lindsay over the weekend. One at 9.15 a.m. on Saturday was behind a house on

RAVENOUS PORCUPINE RAVAGES THE FOREST LANDS

Fire is not the only enemy in controlling these areas of the forest, and although aging rodents, disease and insects also ravage the forest lands, very few people realize the extent of damage inflicted by one of our most common forest animals: the porcupine.

The United States Forest Service the U.S. counterpart of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests estimates a combined loss in three north-western states of 200,000,000 board feet annually.

The herbivorous porcupine's marked preference for some of our most important commercial species such as red and white pine, maple and elm, places the value of this loss in dollars at an extremely high figure.

Porcupines feed on the bark, usually in the upper part of the tree where the bark is more tender and succulent. Often the tree is completely girdled in which case it will eventually die. However, even spot damage deforms the tree to the point that it is liable to maturity its value for lumber is greatly diminished.

The porcupine is said to have been driven speed, strength and cunning by nature, attributes with which other wild animals are usually endowed as their means of defence.

Larkins these porcupine is not defenceless of course, as most everyone knows it has a unique weapon which serves admirably to keep it free from attack by all other wild creatures except the fisher. Unfortunately, the sharp-tubed ear-bearer does not occur in many of the areas in which porcupines are prevalent, consequently in many of the areas in which porcupines are prevalent, consequently the "porcupine" remains virtually un molested unless hunted by man.

It is a common belief that porcupines are protected by our game laws. This is not true, for the fact is that people welcome the assistance of hun-

Bobcaygeon woman given suspended sentence on police officer assault

Mrs. Evelyn Carnegie of the Peachtree area was given a 12-month suspended sentence and placed on probation after pleading guilty in Lindsay court today to assaulting a police officer.

OPP officer Howard Tasker told the court that on April 8th he arrived at the Carnegie residence to check a report that Mrs. Carnegie was driving a car using licence plates taken from another vehicle. While carrying out his investigation, the constable said, Mrs. Carnegie became abusive when advised about the matter of the plates being illegal.

Const. Tasker said she hit him on the arm and knocked his pen and notebook from his hand and also hit him on the head knocking off his hat.

When Mrs. Carnegie was being brought to Lindsay to be lodged in jail, she threatened to sue the constable.

THINGS AREN'T WHAT THEY USED TO BE BEMOANS POACHER

Waddingham, Highland (UP) Life as a poacher just isn't what it used to be, moaned Glen Bemrose.

The 30-year-old bachelor farm-hand decided to give up his career and he let everyone know it by placing the following advertisement in the local newspaper in Waddingham:

"Poacher out of business. New gun for sale, 280 dollars or best offer."

Bemrose said yesterday, gamekeepers are getting too keen and too numerous. More and more people are appearing in court for poaching and their guns are always confiscated. If I was caught it would cost me 420 dollars, including fines and costs. I'm retiring while the going is good.

Bemrose who used to bag 16 brace of pheasants a week, added: "Birds are cheap these days, but cartridges are dear, and you can sometimes run out of cash. So I've decided to give up my gun. Of course, I may go after the odd rabbit with a snare from time to time..."

DADDY'S STOPPING MAY BE BLESSING

I receive many letters from readers who are plagued by insomnia because of snoring. They have tried everything suggested without avail. A few have even taken the ultimate step for cure diverse. Such as one renounced, and you guessed it, her new husband also snores, but in a different key. Therefore, it is refreshing to print this letter which offers a palliative remedy for those who suffer.

Dear Dr. Steincrohn: My husband snores rather loudly and always has. When we first married I decided there must be some way that wouldn't disturb my sleep. Then one night the simple solution came to me. I was glad to have him sleep by my step. Then one night I didn't even have to tell him. Now it doesn't bother me at all.

Comment: Ear stoppers? Change of rooms? Divorce? According to Mrs. H., not at all necessary. A thankful philosophy will do the trick. Come to think of it, I know of no other certain way to blow a palative remedy for those who suffer.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steinorovich, M.D., F.A.C.P.

DEATH IN BED CAN BE AS DRAMATIC AS DEATH IN CRASH

Death is as tragic in bed. An airplane crash. A train wreck. An earthquake. You can be sure that one and all will make the headlines. Newspapers, TV and radio immediately announce such catastrophes.

But many thousands more die quietly in bed. That is not news because one man or woman here, a child there, although they add up to many hundreds of thousands of deaths a year, aren't as dramatic as sudden, unexpected mass annihilation.

Following a fire, a spectacular crash, or any other means of mass human imperilment, you can be certain that immediate preventive measures will be taken. There will be new fire restrictions passed, the structure of planes will be reassessed.

Is a similar reaction usual after Mr. Smith dies in bed of a cancer in South Dakota and Mrs. Jones dies of a heart attack in New York? The answer is yes, but in a delayed reaction to such unexpected lar tragedies. OFTEN DRAMATIC Not until such death does illness become a cold statistic in a long column do we realize that death is as tragic in bed. When we read of thousands who die of cancer and many more thousands who succumb to heart disease do we realize that often the single death can be as dramatic and tragic as the multiple ones.

For example, if your husband has complained of indigestion and has gone to the office instead of calling the doctor (in spite of your pleas that he take care of himself), his sudden collapse and demise as are tragic to you as if he were an accident with 99 other human beings. And if your wife has noticed a lump in her breast for many months and puts off going to the doctor until after operation and X-ray treatment were useless, her death is as dramatic to us as it could be under any accidental circumstances.

At least, this is as it should be. We are becoming more and more preventive-medicine minded. Through such advice as you read in this column, I books, in magazines, over the air, and from the first-hand information received from your own doctor, you are now more alert against the killers who stalk down their prey one at a time.

Gruesome as the thought is, if you will remember that death is as tragic in bed, you will take common sense measures to treat illness early to prevent needless single tragedies. These include up to an awful lot of dramatic stories.

Garlic For Heart Skip? Dear Dr. Steinorovich: What do you think of garlic for heart skips? Mrs. M.

Mrs. H. Norton

hostess for seventh meeting

Eight members attended the seventh meeting of Rebaros Sewing Bells which was held at the home of Mrs. H. Norton. The girls were told to bring the houses to complete at the next meeting. A label is to go on the shoulder telling the maker's name, age and club membership, also the total cost. The group's record books must contain a cost page and a club story which tells what you liked and disliked about the unit, record books and sewing. There were then shown three ways to sew hem and the buttonhole stitch. Each girl tried to make a buttonhole and slipstitch hem.

STOP! . . . killing yourself

ENGLISH TV POSES PROBLEM FOR EPILEPTIC YOUNGSTERS

Of 243 epileptic children, 14 to 15 years of age admitted to a hospital in two years, 14 for many things from production of "T.V. induced" convulsions that occurred only when they give up six to eight hours of TV viewing, while the other of their daily lives in self-viewing. The different circumstances. In teen-agers, who watch the television for different reasons, the eleven patients were treated with phenobarbital and other drugs, and out into the street after three to 11 months. He and do likewise. Now and only one patient had further convulsions from another quarter: medicine.

Television can produce convulsions in the susceptible.

According to results of a study which appeared in the British Medical Journal in 1962 by Drs. S.N. Pantakali, B.D. Bower and H. Douglas Jones, television-induced convulsions are not a rarity in epileptic children in Britain. It has not been reported in the United States, however, but cause our television system is supposed to have a "higher flicker" threshold—whatever that means.

The doctors found that if the susceptible child sits with in two feet of a TV screen, convulsions are more likely to occur than with illness it is inevitable. I'll be careful.

FISH PARASITES

IF PARASITE-INFESTED FISH ARE PLANTED WHERE OTHERS ARE HEALTHY, THE PARASITES WILL INFEST THEM ALSO. THE PARASITES ARE THE SAME, PLANTED, FISH IN THE WATER. THE PARASITES DO NOT MOVE WITH IT! SOME PEOPLE MAY BE SHOCKED TO FIND PARASITES IN FISH. THE VERY CHARM OF IT IS SOME REASON ALL FISH FISH ARE SAFE TO BE WHEN PROPERLY COOKED.

Mr. O: You'll have to make your choice between your neighbor's ill-intentioned advice and that of your doctor's. If your doctor says you need a cystoscopic examination of your bladder to find the cause of the bleeding, I'd go along with his advice rather than with ill-omiss suggestions thrown across the back yard fence.

You take care of yourself, I hear.

I like your column—Mr. M. Comment. Please don't be careful.

To permit cattle to graze in woodlot is unsound practice claims L and F

Now that spring has arrived, farmers will soon be turning their cattle out to pasture, which on some farms includes the woodlot. District Forester A. E. Walroth observes in the Lands and Forests weekly letter.

The practice of permitting cattle to range through a woodlot for shade and pasture is unsound from both the agricultural and forestry standpoints. The Ontario Royal Commission on Forestry in 1947 stated: "The most widespread abuse of forests is that of utilizing them as pasturage. If this practice alone could be eliminated, more than half the battle to save Ontario's woodland either woodland nor pasture would be won. Forestry and agriculture cannot succeed on woodland if it is necessary for the same ground."

Experiments conducted in woodland in your pasture presents a marked preference for W. J. Platt. Mrs. Platt returning home with her for a weeks holiday.

Mrs. Wm. D. Murchison visited her mother, Mrs. D. Riddell at Willowdale.

Mrs. R. Canberry and her daughter, Miss June Canberry, N.N. of Port Perry were recent guests of Mrs. R.

The physical damage to a grazed woodlot is not however confined to browsed trees. Trampling is destructive of small trees and damaging to the surface roots of large trees. In some cases, the roots of trees are exposed and the soil is washed away.

Repeating browsing results in the less desirable hardwood species becoming dominant in the woodlot's understorey, thus the entire stand's composition is downgraded.

HE MISSED

Denver (DPI) — Dennis E. Smith of Boulder, Colorado, shot a police officer yesterday with a toy water pistol. Smith told the judge who fired him for drunkenness that he didn't want to hit patrolman R. E. Henry. He used water when he aimed for the word "traffic" on the police cruiser.

First 3-act play for Little Theatre

J. Gouned Campbell, director of the Lindsay Little Theatre production "The Curious Savage" came to Canada from Scotland 15 years ago. He has acquired a reputation as a playwright and director. He was awarded a Canada Council grant for work on a full-length musical which is to have its premiere in Simcoe, Ontario this fall. Some of his plays have received honours in the Ottawa Little Theatre's Canadian Playwriting Competition over the past few years and his plays "Summit Conference" and "The Bleeding Heart of Joe-Joe" have won top awards at Festivals throughout Ontario and other parts of Canada. Mr. Campbell, at present, writing a musical based on a play by Catherine Mc. Brickenford of Simcoe, a published playwright of note.

"The Curious Savage", first produced by The Theatre Guild in New York in 1959 in the first 3-act play to be presented by the Lindsay Little Theatre group. A comedy, the action takes place in the living room of the "The Clingers", a real home for people slightly disturbed and mostly in their final stage of treatment — a rest home for wealthy people.

The three children of the Savage family place their step mother, Ethel Savage in this home fearing she will spend all the money their father left her. How she is received by them and how she succeeds in bringing the story to a happy conclusion is the intriguing plot of the play to be presented at the Academy Theatre on the 1st and 2nd of May.

Thoughtless spectator acts can ruin team's chances

"Lions game lost by spectators" might well have been the headline for last night's write up on the Wednesday's 4-3 loss to Hespeler. Sad to say, this could be the story in all levels of hockey. Why any spectator could be so thoughtless as to jeopardize the home team's chances of winning a crucial game is hard to understand. We refer specifically to the egg throwing incident that delayed Wednesday's game just when the Lions had the stage set for a couple of three quick goals.

The Lions have had far better support, and still will have than any other team they have played against in the season. That support has had a great bearing on the Lindsay Lions making the all-Ontario finals in their first year and the support has been well earned and is appreciated by every member of the Club, but please fans do not let such a thoughtless act ever occur again. Almost without exception this kind of thing happens just when the opposition is on the ropes, so to speak, and the delay gives them time to recover as well as cooling out the home team.

Tonight the team face the task of defeating the Hespeler Shamrocks on their own ice. This they can do if they settle down and play the type of hockey of which they have proved themselves capable. True the Lions have monopolized the play sufficiently to win most games but that is not sufficient to win. The puck must go in their net. May that be the battle cry of the Lions to-night.

Game time to-night at Hespeler is eight-thirty and many Lindsay fans are planning on making the trip. After three games the Lions have found that the Rocks have their weak spots and should come up with a handful of goals tonight. The three goal one-minute blast in the first game, and the two goal outburst in the final seconds Wednesday, proves there is a weak spot in the Shamrocks' armor that the Lions will try to shatter and get back in the series. While the situation is far from lost, the Lions badly need a win to-night, both for their own morale and for the depressing effect on the Rocks. All we can say is "Go Lions, go — continue to give it all cooling out the home team.

Fish plantings under way
The 1964 fish planting program is now under way, with the first of the stream plantings of trout being made last week, states A. E. Walroth, District Forester, in the Forest by Report of the Ontario Department of Lands and Forests.
Lindsay reports trout plantings in the lakes to the north will com-ence as soon as aircraft become available.

J. M. Hunt, Manager of the Deer Lake fish hatchery, states that the collection of maskinonge was on its way
in progress.

The report goes on to say that each year a list of the waters planted with hatchery stock for that year is published.
Although the lists for previous years are scarce there is a good supply of the 1963
fish stocking list available up on request. It should be remembered, however, that the list of lakes and streams appearing on the list are not necessarily the only or best fishing waters. Mr. Walroth states that there are many bodies of water in the Lindsay Forest
District containing populations of naturally produced fish, and which do not require stocking with hatchery fish. To many anglers these are the best lakes.

Joan Evelyn Stoughton wed in Gooderham United Church

Gooderham United Church was the scene of a pretty wedding on March 21, 1964 at 2:30 p.m., when Joan Evelyn Stoughton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Stoughton, of Gooderham and Robert McCauland, son of Mr. Robert McCauland, of Lindsay and the late Mrs. McCauland were united in marriage.

Rev. Peirce, of Hallowburton, assisted by Mr. K. McAllister, pastor of the United Church, Gooderham, performed the double ring ceremony. The pianist was Mrs. R. F. Hallowburton of Gooderham.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was charming in an ankle-length gown of misty sheer white nylon over rayon tulle. The front of the gown was trimmed with applied lace and there was a large bow at back. Her hair was a sequin-trimmed crown which held a shoulder-length net veil and she carried a bouquet of red and white roses.

The matron-of-honor was Mrs. Oswald Hunter (Sharon), sister of the bride and she was in a yellow nylon over tulle dress and had a matching crown headpiece.

The best man was Ernest Kenney, of Lindsay and the ushers were Wayne Stoughton, brother of the bride, of Gooderham and M. Cook, of Lindsay.

The reception was held in the United Church basement where the bride's mother, Mrs. Stoughton, the bride, the groom, and the bridesmaids and groomsmen were seated. The bride wore a white wedding dress with white accessories and a corsage of white mums. Both Stou-

The new provincial housing corporation will operate under a staff of directors but will be responsible to the minister of economics and development.

Mr. Randall said the Ontario Housing Advisory Committee has made certain recommendations as to the activities of the proposed housing corporation, including the provision of home improvement loans, mortgages on older dwellings, loan guarantees, assistance to cooperative housing groups and financial and other assistance in connection with the conservation of existing housing stock.

These proposals will be implemented whenever they are considered feasible, the minister said.

The new provincial housing corporation is part of a broad housing program for Ontario, which Mr. Randall said he is confident will eliminate a large part of the inherent causes that have impeded the housing program in the past.

Mr. Randall said that with the cooperation of the federal government, it will be possible:

- To provide for the sharing of costs on a prearranged basis, with the federal and municipal governments.
- To enable private builders submit proposals on a competitive basis for houses of a certain size and standard, using their own design.

To shorten the length of time required to provide housing by eliminating the many levels of government activity involved in the development of projects.

• To purchase existing houses in subdivisions where they are economically feasible for the two fold purpose of integrating public housing tenants into the mainstream of the community and providing accommodation in a minimum of time.

• To permit tenants of future public housing projects to purchase their houses when their income reaches a certain point.

Mr. Randall said the funds being provided in previous years had not always been spent because of difficulties beyond the control of the Ontario government.

"The root of the problem is that a lack of funds provided for this purpose, but more a lack of involvement on the part of all involved in housing projects generally," Mr. Randall said.

Despite these difficulties, a number of projects are now under development or planning for 1964.

Recent housing projects should be under construction during the year in Belleville, Chatham, Chatham, Delhi, Dunnville, Port Francis, Galt, Hamilton, Kapuskasing, Kingston, Lindsay, London, Metropolitan Toronto (4), Midland, Oakville, Oshawa, Ottawa (4), Peterborough, Parry Sound, Port Arthur, Sudbury, Timmins, Toronto Township and Woodstock.

Land assembly projects will be under development in 1964 in Brantford, Brockville, Cornwall, Dunnville, Galt, Guelph, Hamilton, Kingston, Metropolitan Toronto (3), Mississauga, Nanawana, Nepean Town-

OVER AND OUT

Lindsay (UPI) — A witness was giving evidence at London old Bailey Court Monday when a mysterious voice cracked, "over..."

"Then the unseen voice delivered a police message which said "Roger and out." Finally there was a click and the courtroom was silent.

Newly installed microphones in the courtroom picked up radio messages from a passing police car which the electronic experts said the odds against such an occurrence were two-million-to-one.

Police in New London, Connecticut said Monday burglars broke into the home of Mr. and Mrs. Romeo Gentilelli and took 15 books of trading stamps but did not bother money or jewelry.

of the township with the exception of Kingsdale Lake. It is expected that from the 1965 angling season on, fly-fishing only will be the rule in this area.

For many years the waters of the York River drainage system in Bruton Township provided excellent brook trout angling. In the early days hatchery fish plantings were not made in this area but as the angling pressure increased in the post-war years and fishing season began to decline it was felt necessary to make hatchery fish plantings to supplement naturally produced stock.

In the meantime, both stocking and suble have taken place in these waters over the years. Some of these are situation and deposition of silt over the lake bottoms, increase in beaver population and their dams, and the increase in populations of yellow perch, suckers and other rough fish which have upset the species composition in the lake.

With the creation of the brook trout unit in Research Branch a few years ago and following the addition of Bruton Township to Algonquin Park in 1961, this area suggests itself as a natural for brook trout research which to date has been centred chiefly in the vicinity of the Harkness Laboratory at Lake Opeongo and Whitney. In time the findings from such a research should pay off in terms of better angling for more anglers, concluded District Forester A. E. Walroth.

"Initiation Night" held at Glenarm

Glenarm (FNS) — A very important evening in the life of the newly formed Explorer Group under the leadership of Mrs. Bryce Kelly and Mrs. James R. Nesbitt was "Initiation Night" when Explorers received their stars and pins and on the same evening had members of the Woodville Explorer Group and their leaders as guests on this happy occasion.

Members of the visiting group and interested friends were welcomed to the meeting by President and Mrs. James R. Nesbitt and Robert Ledgerwood and Bobby Nesbitt as ushers. On behalf of Glenarm Explorers, Mrs. Bryce Kelly welcomed the visitors and spoke of the happy and educational time among the newly formed group of children and hoped for even more children to attend these meetings held at an early hour in the evening.

Following Mrs. Kelly's words of welcome all the children and their leaders repeated "the purpose" and their "motto"—"Be doers of the world and not hearers only." All joined in union singing of "This is My Father's World", for which James Nesbitt played the accompaniment after which Linda Ledgerwood chose a portion of Psalm 119 for Bible Reading.

The visiting Woodville Explorer Group then favoured with two much appreciated vocal numbers "Jesus is a Wonderful Saviour" and "The Bible", with Mrs. Clarence Vesle kindly playing the accompaniment. Mrs. Vesle also informed the gathering that the group of young people are now their Junior choir and assisted every second.

Rummage Sale planned by Little Britain group

Little Britain (PNS) — The April meeting of the Little Britain "City Group" was held in the church, and was opened by the president, Mrs. Jan Nowakowski welcoming each one present. They reported the United Church Women's Purpose, followed with prayer. Mrs. Nowakowski gave a reading entitled "Pastor's Thoughts" followed with the singing of a Hymn. The roll call was answered with a Spring thought. Minutes of the last meeting were read and approved, followed by the secretary reports. Mrs. Marie Ormrod, supply secretary, reported that The Overseas Relief Clothing Depot were wanting clothing. It was moved by Miss Pera Harrison and seconded by Mrs. Ormrod that they write and inquire as to what type of clothing they require and also where to send it. They were reminded of the Rummage Sale to be held in May. Rev. Gordon Hout brought a recording of the late Dr. Martin Hilliard, which was followed by discussion regarding the recording. Mrs. Muriel Cornell thanked Mrs. Hout very much for bringing this recording, which was certainly enjoyed by everyone present. The Worship service was taken over by Mrs. Cornell and her group, which was opened with "Women of God Arise", followed with prayer. The scripture reading was read by Miss Elva Gorrell. Mrs. Ruth McTaggart sang an interesting song entitled "Mary and Martha", followed with prayer by Mrs. Cornell. "A Prayer for the Home" was given by Mrs. Allison Little. The offering was taken and dedicated, followed with the benediction by Mrs. Cornell. A social time was spent, and a vote of thanks moved to the group in charge.

Monarchs upset Toronto 6-4

The N-D-G Monarchs pulled an upset in Montreal last night by whipping the Toronto Marlboros 6-4 in the second game of their best-of-five series.

The series is now tied at one game apiece, with the winner going on to represent the East in the Memorial Cup playoffs.

The Monarchs' skating and dogged checking, coupled with an indifferent Marle performance, was the difference in the two teams. The big Toronto forward, the O-N-G Junior Champions — were riding a 22-game unbeaten streak before last night's split.

The Montreal club rocketed into a 4-0 lead in the first period before Marle got untricked, and the margin proved too great. The third game will be played in Toronto, Wed. night, next.

STRAY SHOTS ON GOAL...

Lindsay emerged on Monday goals with the short end of a 3 to 0 count. They were different but not disgraced. The Lions had more shots on goal than Hespeler but the stars of the evening were the flailing goalies who placed him in the category of Rover, Hodge and Sweeney.

The Lions eliminated the season with a spectacular performance but in Hespeler, the decision was in doubt until the final whistle. Hespeler has practically had the same team for two seasons and the Westerners landed in the semifinals last season. Lindsay Lions can win next season.

The Lions service club tucked into the kitty at the beginning of the season to "get the team on the ice" and the stars of the evening were a tidy sum in the bank because of a highly successful season. Nine of the team worked as one united effort to establish a

Speaks on Mission Experience

Rev. Albert J. O'Connell, guest speaker at Cambridge Street Baptist Church, Sunday evening, presented an interesting and as informative address on his own personal experiences as a missionary teacher and translator in India. At present Mr. Alley is the Canadian Baptist Overseas Missions Secretary.

Mr. Alley's mission field in India in 1944, was a territory bordering the Bay of Bengal, where there were two groups of natives speaking two different languages. These were the Sooras and the Orissas.

In 1947 the first church was organized at Serango. There are now five churches there. A last-learned story of a converted man was told of how he immediately started to work the wrong he had done when he had defrauded people with whom he had dealt.

The same man requested Mr. Alley to teach him so that he could tell his story to the Bible. A period of teaching several other natives began, and he translated portions of the Bible into their native language. This led to a number of conversions which were carried out.

Mr. Alley's mission is to encourage people to live in peace and to stimulate the churches to unite in the distribution of the Bible to the Baptist churches in Canada.

Rev. T. W. Bowdley thanked the speaker for his stimulating address.

TIRE BLOWS, $500 DAMAGE

A car driven by Howard Maguire, who had been detained damage estimated at $500 when the vehicle left the road on Highway 30, was taken to the OPP shop after the car was proceeding north on Highway 30 when the incident occurred, sending the vehicle out of control and into the east ditch.

Boy stuck by car
Ron Hayes, 7, of 134 Kent Street, was stuck by a car when he was driving a vehicle driven by Ken Reid of Redwood.

Police said the boy was running Queen Street at about 10:30 p.m. Monday, when the accident occurred.

winning team and packed houses

When Blair, of Ottawa and Whitley, a scout from Boston was an interested spectator and he spotted several good players in the lineup of the Billy Beers of Eddy Sherry's Springfield Indians, potted the Lions and predicted the team would go a long way next season if the players stick together.

Lindsay Lions had a long, tough row to hoe in eliminating some of the fastest Junior C teams in the province and then extinguish Harry. Hespeler eliminated teams Ron Simpson and Preston in their first group and then vanquished Wallaceburg in four straight.

How good they are, Rooters for Hespeler at Tuesday's game admitted that the Lions should have won the last game in Hespeler but were outlucked in the dying stages of the game Tuesday as a reprimand of the same idea.

It was a game packed full of action. The home side deserved some worthy action on the part of the lions. The Lions went down with a car and were fighting all the way. To be in the finals is distinctly a feather.

Head referee was Joe Dader of Toronto, whose parents resided in Lindsay. Dader refereed the game in professional fashion and nobody was complaining.

Harry Johnson, arena manager, was on pins and needles during the last few minutes. He remarked "I thought the boys would win but they certainly gave their best throughout the season and they are real 'champs' in my opinion," which the fans will echo "amen".

West Ontario and Nova Scotia worst areas in Canada for discrimination

Charges Ontario Labor Speaker at Human Rights Seminar

Windsor, Ontario—UPI—A city's only newspaper for human rights seminar at the Windsor Star has for two years refused to open publication on racial and other discrimination. The paper, he said, completely ignores these problems because it fears that publishing them will be a black mark on the Ontario Labor Committee.

McCurdy said in an interview of apartment block rent practices in Windsor, 17 landlords said they would not rent to negroes. Eight were doubtful while the other three said they would rent to colored persons.

Dr. Howard McCurdy, a Toronto dentist and a University of Windsor professor, said the situation is worse in Windsor than anywhere else in the country.

STOP!... killing yourself

By Peter J. Steiner, M.D., F.A.C.P.

MOTHER TO BE
DON'T PANIC
Pregnancy, especially the first, is a time of borrowed anxieties and apprehensions. Young expectant mothers tend to panic at the very thought of complications, however unlikely. For example, consider this letter in reply to a recent column in which I spoke of the rare complication of acute appendicitis in pregnancy.

Dear Dr. Steiner: I've just read your column on appendicitis and pregnancy and I feel that I'm qualified to answer Mrs. O. Steiner. I see I'm one case in 37,000 that you referred to.

I went into the hospital on Sept. 6, 1947, expecting, to have my baby which was due. The only complication we expected was that it would be an Rb. baby.

Thanks to a wonderful nurse on duty, it was discovered that I was not in labor, but was having an attack of appendicitis. She contacted by doctor immediately and he in turn consulted a specialist. A blood count was taken and within an hour pain—Mrs. M. Chicago.

and in no time at all I was in the operating room, having my appendix removed. The baby was born on Sept. 10, (4 days later), by normal delivery. I was in labor for approximately 9 hours, then came up with the key that placed 13-ounce baby, who is, incidentally, was an Rh negative baby. The birth took place at H.C. Hospital and he was transferred to H. Hospital a few hours after birth—where he had a complete blood test. He is now a healthy 6-foot-6 and B student in St. Louis. You school.

So you see, Dr. Steiner, we both came through with flying colors and I really hope you will print my letter to take some of the fear out of some of the mothers' hearts—because I know how they feel when they hear the words, "we'll have to operate," or "it will be an Rh negative baby."

Just have confidence in the doctor and God and everything will be fine—I know. The main thing to remember is don't get frightened and don't grow by now that the best way to kill the parasite is to do a
